

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3053

After Hei Xinjiu was done acting cool, she asked the little bastard to direct the turtle shell to float to the depths of the lake.

While Hei Xinjiu was gnawing on the lotus root inside the turtle shell, she heard the monk Sigh. "Female benefactor, please wait!"

Afraid that there might be a trap, hei xinjiu only revealed her small head. "Master, what can I do for You?"

The monk's black figure turned golden again. It was not the dazzling golden color from before, but a light golden color that made people feel warm.

"The female benefactor's words reminded the person in the dream. If it wasn't for the female benefactor intentionally enlightening and causing this penniless monk's mood to rise and fall, this penniless monk would still be obsessed with appearances."

Hei xinjiu touched her nose guiltily. She was not intentionally enlightening, but this fellow would not admit it. He said pretentiously,

"Back then, master sacrificed himself for the sake of all the people in the world. This young master, ah, this young lady is full of admiration. Therefore, it's only right for this young lady to do something for Master."

Xiao Heiniao, who was inside the turtle shell, almost vomited!

Damn, Master Hei Xin's face was getting thicker and thicker! No, she was completely shameless!

The monk did not know that this fellow was putting on an act. He said with emotion, "The female benefactor is really clever. The most precious thing is her pure heart. This penniless monk was able to meet the female benefactor to enlighten me. This penniless monk is really lucky."

Pure Heart?

Not to mention the few little blackbirds, even Hei Xinjiu herself felt that this term was somewhat inappropriate to be used on her.

"Ahem, master, you are exaggerating. I wonder, what is Master's next step?" Hei xinjiu quickly changed the topic. Otherwise, she was afraid that she would laugh out loud.

The monk raised his head and laughed loudly. Hei Xinjiu was so scared that she shivered. Oh My God, has this monk gone mad? Why was he laughing?

The monk laughed for a long time before he sighed. "You want me to waste the lives of countless people. I didn't expect you to be so stubborn after I died. What a joke! Almsgiver, this penniless monk has a favor to ask of you. Will you agree to it?"

Hei xinjiu nodded repeatedly. "Please speak, master. I will definitely help you if I can."

The master praised Hei xinjiu again and said, "This penniless monk will disperse this last bit of obsession in a moment. Please help me give this relic to the bitter Zen sect at your convenience, almsgiver. This penniless monk's soul has returned to his homeland."

Before Hei Xinjiu could ask where the so-called bitter Zen sect was, the monk had already spread out. The last white relic with a faint golden light fell into Hei Xinjiu's hand.

"Master! Master! where is the bitter Zen sect?" Hei xinjiu shouted

Unfortunately, there was no response. It was obvious that the monk had lost his soul.

“This monk is too impatient. Can’t he say a few more words? He hasn’t even told us where the Little Beauty’s things are. Seriously!”

Yun chujiu did not know that after the monk had realized the truth, he felt that staying here for even a moment would be a blasphemy to Buddha. That was why he hurriedly told her about the funeral and then disappeared.

Hei Xinjiu rolled her eyes. Now that no one was watching the lotus pond, it would be a waste not to take it!

Thus, this guy ordered the stupid Cuties to start a round of torment.

However, this guy still had a conscience. He only stuffed half of the thousand-leaf golden-grade lotus into his storage ring and did not wrap it all up.

“Little Beauty, where is the thing you want to take? Let’s go find it now!” Hei xinjiu hugged di beiming and kissed him, then said.

“Let’s go to the center of the lake and take a look. I think it should be there. However, you have to be careful. There should be something dangerous in the center of the lake,” di beiming said in a deep voice.
