

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3055

Yun Chujiu had a large kitchen knife in her hand, but she did not have much confidence. Moreover, this was in the water, so the small flames would not be of much use.

Just when Blackheart Jiu was at a loss, Meng Yanshou spoke.

“Little fairy, I have almost recovered. I will weave a dream for that demon, and you take the opportunity to kill him!”

In fact, Meng Yanshou had hesitated and weighed the pros and cons before deciding to step forward! This fellow was now half a soul. Using its innate ability would consume a lot of spiritual power that it had spent a lot of effort to cultivate.

Therefore, it would hide whenever it could. When the monk chanted the sutras, it did not have a headache at all. It was afraid that Yun Chujiu would make it attack, so it found an excuse to hide.

However, looking at it now, it seemed that there was no other good method other than it. It could only brace itself and charge forward.

Yun chujiu was overjoyed. It was rare that she did not rebuke the Meng Yanshou. She said in an unprecedentedly gentle tone, “Curly hair, if we can successfully kill the demon outside this time, I will lend you the script that I found in the Imperial Palace of the Yan Clan.”

When the Meng Yanshou heard what Yun Chujiu said, it was overjoyed, immediately, it grinned happily. “Little Fairy, don’t worry! Although my strength has greatly decreased now, I am half a soul without a body. The demon can’t do anything to me. We will definitely succeed.”

Yun chujiu and the Meng Yanshou discussed for a while more. Cough cough, Yun Chujiu took the kitchen knife and killed the Meng Yanshou!

To be exact, she killed Meng Yanshou's shell — the rabbit! In this way, Meng Yanshou would be able to escape from the shell.

Yun chujiu opened a tiny crack in the shell. Even though the crack was extremely small, a few sharp-mouthed bats still jumped in and were burned away by Yun chujiu with a small flame.

The man outside was stunned. "Stupid girl, you actually have ten-thousand-year-old fire marrow? "But it doesn't matter. What's Yours Is Mine!"! "If we were on land, I might be afraid of your ten-thousand-year-old fire marrow. But in this lake, its effect is really limited. "If you know what's good for you, come out and throw your life away!"

"By the way, you haven't told me what kind of demon you are."In order to create an opportunity for Meng Yanshou, Yun Chujiu deliberately talked to the demon outside to distract him.

"I'm a demon Slayer!"The man said arrogantly.

"Samo? Isn't that a breed of dog? Why do you have a dog name?"Hei Xinjiu said with a smile. Of course, this guy knew that the man was talking about killing a demon, but he was just joking.

How could the demon Slayer know that Hei Xinjiu was beating around the bush, he said viciously, "Nonsense! How come I haven't heard of any demon dog with this name? ! If there really is a demon dog, I will kill it all! I am the embodiment of countless killing intent, and I am a noble even in the demon world!"

"Aiyo, you are really impressive! You are actually competing with dogs! However, based on your words, the demon world is divided into different levels? You have almost died in the demon world, and there is no need to distinguish between nobles and commoners!"Hei Xinjiu curled her lips and said.

The demon slayer snorted, "Humph! Ignorant Juniors! Your so-called 'killing all of us in the Demon World'is nothing more than killing the demons who participated in the war between gods and demons!

You humans have never even been to our demon world, yet you are so arrogant as to think that you can exterminate us demons? You really make people laugh!

Moreover, all negative emotions in the world can be turned into demons, and demons will advance to become demons! Therefore, demons can not be killed! Hahaha!”
