

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3062

After saying goodbye to Buttface, Hei Xinjiu rode her sword to the entrance to the immortal Yuan continent.

As soon as Hei Xinjiu mounted her flying sword, she immediately recalled the old and new grudges.

Unfortunately, this guy had no guts to be a thief. He could only silently destroy a certain lord in his heart.

After cursing the pretty boy hundreds of times in her heart., then, she asked curiously, "Prince Charming, when I fell from the entrance of the venomous miasma forest, it was a huge bird's nest. Could the teleportation array be inside that Bird's Nest?"

Di beiming looked at her as if he was looking at an idiot. "The teleportation array in the venomous miasma forest is a random teleportation array. Therefore, the locations of the teleportation arrays are different."

Hei xinjiu touched her nose. Wasn't it amazing that she knew more than her? Pah!

"Prince Charming, is the location of the teleportation array that we return to also random?"

"That's right. After we leave the teleportation array, we will be teleported to different places. Be careful. If you run into any danger, remember to crush the jade token that I gave you."

Hei xinjiu nodded. She was a little excited. That was great! She was finally going to get rid of the gigolo! She was finally going to say goodbye to her days of being a slave!

Di beiming glanced at her. "Are you very happy to be separated from me?"

“Prince Charming, how can you say that? I Can’t bear to part with you! I Can’t wait to be with you all the time!”The little girl in his heart was so happy when he said that! Haha, I Won’t serve you anymore! I’m going to have fun on my own!

Di beiming understood the guy’s thoughts too well. He snorted coldly and said, “Little Jiu, because that Idiot Xue Wuji is getting stronger, I will have a lot of time to visit you in the future. Let’s settle the score slowly. There’s no hurry.”

Hei Xinjiu pretended to be confused, tilting her head, she said, “Prince Charming, only when the world is united does we dare to be in love with Jun Jue. How can there be a score between us? “What? Prince Charming, if something happens to your body, don’t force yourself. Remember to send me a message.”

Seeing that Yun Chujiu was deliberately changing the topic, di beiming did not insist and nodded. “When you go back, don’t get involved in the matters of the Yan clan. Cultivate well and don’t get into trouble.”

Hei xinjiu blinked her eyes. “Prince Charming, since you are the lord of the Yan clan, why don’t you teach them a lesson?”Sheng Zun asked

“I’ve lost a lot of my memories, so I’m not too sure about what happened back then. Besides, you heard what Sha Mo said. The demons have always been eyeing the humans. The humans are too comfortable, so it’s good to practice with the Yan clan.”

Hei Xinjiu:” ...”

She suddenly felt sorry for the Yan clan. How could it be destroyed? !

A few days later, the two arrived at a valley.

After di beiming opened the enchantment, he first let Yun Chujiu enter the teleportation formation before he walked into the teleportation formation as well.

After an unknown period of time, hei xinjiu fell to the ground.

When this fellow got up and saw it, he was instantly dumbfounded!

F * ck!

Damn God, are you playing with me? !

Isn't this the land of the nightmare ancestor? How did she get teleported here?

However, it made sense. When the nightmare clan had left the dark continent, they had probably arrived here. Otherwise, they wouldn't have built the land of the nightmare ancestor here.

Just as this fellow was looking around, he heard footsteps coming from afar. In a moment of panic, he entered the sacrificial temple next to Meng Yanshou. It was the sacrificial temple where the Nightmare Beast had been.

Hei Xinjiu took off the spirit-concealing ring from her hand and hid behind the curtain of the temple.
