

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3114

Hei Xinjiu followed the earth tower to the desolate land and started refining the 'antidote' without stopping.

After refining a batch of so-called 'antidote', she was in a dilemma.

She would only know if the antidote was effective after she ate it. However, she did not want to be a guinea pig.

Therefore, hei xinjiu shouted at the earth tower, "Hey, come here. Miss has refined a batch of antidote. Come and eat it!"

The earthen Pagoda's tool spirit was not stupid. If it was, why would qi ling not eat the antidote herself? It would not fall for the trick!

Seeing that the earthen pagoda's tool spirit had fallen for the trick, Hei Xinjiu had no choice but to ask Mao suiqiu to take out a wind-edge rabbit from the grand illusionary land and give it a 'rejuvenation pill'.

She planned to test the medicine with it after the medicine took effect.

The wind-edge rabbit began to shrink rapidly and soon turned into a little rabbit.

Hei xinjiu nodded. It seemed that the rejuvenation pill was quite lethal. Whether it was a human, an artifact spirit, or a demon beast, it would shrink after eating it.

Hei xinjiu fed the so-called antidote to the little rabbit. The Little Rabbit's body grew a little bigger, but its fur also began to grow crazily. Even its eyelashes grew half a foot long.

Hei Xinjiu: "..."

The formula definitely wouldn't work. Otherwise, wouldn't she become a monkey after eating it. However, the long-haired rabbit could be kept to knit a sweater for Mao Qiu, because its fur would continue to grow after it was cut off. There was simply no end to it.

Hei Xinjiu quickly changed the formula. After refining another batch of pills, she asked Mao Qiu to produce another wind-edge rabbit. She fed the wind-blade Rabbit a rejuvenation pill first and then an 'antidote'.

Hei Xinjiu saw that the wind-blade rabbit had returned to its original size. Just as she was about to celebrate the success of the antidote, she noticed that the wind-blade rabbit was still growing. In the end, it turned into a six-foot-long giant rabbit.

Hei xinjiu touched her nose. The antidote didn't work either. If she ate it, wouldn't she become a giant? ! How could she have sex with a gigolo then? !

After that, hei xinjiu refined the antidote repeatedly. The wind-blade rabbit that ate her antidote was considered to have eight lifetimes of bad luck! Some became a long-haired monster, some became a giant rabbit, some became a two-headed monster, some became a five-legged monster, and some coughed and became a eunuch rabbit.

Hei Xinjiu looked at the mess of rabbits on the ground and wanted to cry, but no tears came out.

The Earth Tower Tool, Qi Ling, was even more discouraged. This black-hearted brat was simply fooling around. could someone like her develop an antidote?

To say the least, she did not dare to eat the antidote she developed! Who knew what kind of monster she would become after eating it!

Hei Xinjiu carried the spirit of not giving up and not giving up. She refined a full month's worth of pills. Unfortunately, she still did not succeed. Instead, she obtained a group of strange-shaped rabbits!

For some unknown reason, these strange-shaped rabbits actually listened to Meng Yanshou's orders. Meng Yanshou finally showed off his might and brought these strange-shaped rabbits around every day.

Hei Xinjiu felt that it was not a good idea to go on like this. It was better to go to the killing Origin sect and the Chaos Origin sect's library to take a look. Perhaps, she could find some inspiration.

Therefore, Hei Xinjiu asked the earth tower to bring her out of the desolate land.

"Peak master! Peak Master! Yun Chujiu's bad news came out! The earth tower came back with her! However, there are a bunch of weird-looking demon beasts behind the bad news. They look like a bunch of rabbits!"

Peak Master Lian:"..."
