

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3117

Yun Chujiu's small face was suddenly covered with a layer of frost. "Everyone knows that Qu Shanshan and Qu Quan died because they betrayed the sect. Why? Do you want to fight for them? It seems that you are also Murong Hanlie's remaining accomplice!"

The aquiline nose finally realized that he had said the wrong thing. His eyes revealed some panic. "You, you're talking nonsense! I just don't like you being arrogant and despotic!"

Yun Chujiu's tone was cold, she waved her small claws. "You don't like me being arrogant and domineering? What right do you have to not like me? What right do you have to not like me? Did you just want to Kill My Rabbit? In that case, there's no need for you to live anymore! Long Hair, kill him!"

The long hair rabbit's fur tightened and strangled the hooked nose to death.

Everyone was stunned by this unexpected turn of events!

Everyone thought that Yun Chujiu was just saying that, so no one went forward to stop her. Who would have thought that she had really killed someone!

Yun chujiu sat on the giant rabbit, she swept her gaze across everyone present. "You have to understand one thing. I'm not even afraid of the Yan clan, so naturally, I won't be afraid of you. "If I hear anyone talking about me or you touch my things, he will be your end!"

After saying that, Yun Chujiu ran away with a bunch of rabbits.

Everyone looked at each other, then at the dead body with the hooked nose. Their backs suddenly turned cold. It was too cruel! That Yun Chujiu was simply the reincarnation of a devil. Wasn't she afraid of breaking the sect rules?

Of course, Hei Xinjiu wasn't afraid. At worst, she would be punished to go to the self-reflection cave! Master Xiahou was probably reluctant to do that, because if Hei xinjiu blew up the self-reflection cave, he would have nowhere to cry.

The nightmare beast said obsequiously, "Little Fairy, your behavior just now was too charming!"

Yun chujiu said indifferently, "He has always hated me. If I don't kill him, he will be a disaster sooner or later. "Besides, I'll make an example of him. Otherwise, if the news of me being promoted to an inner disciple gets out, there will be a lot of gossips. Let's see who dares to be arrogant this time."

Meng Yanshou complimented her but didn't say anything. He thought to himself that this black-hearted little girl was not only evil, but also evil. It was not wrong for her to follow him!

After Hei Xinjiu returned to the dormitory with a bunch of rabbits, he began to think about the rabbits.

There were a total of five rabbits, including a giant rabbit, a long-haired rabbit, a two-headed rabbit, a five-legged rabbit, and, uh, a eunuch rabbit.

How did these rabbits become stronger? Some of the rabbits that Yun Chujiu brought out from the Great Void Mystic Realm had taken the same antidote, so why did only these five rabbits become stronger?

Hei Xinjiu could not come up with a conclusion even after researching for a long time. Initially, she wanted to set them free at the back of the mountain, but now, she changed her mind. She wanted to keep them for observation to see if there would be any changes, perhaps the effects of the medicine would return to normal once it was over.

That afternoon, two pieces of news spread throughout the Shi Yuan sect.

One was that Hei Xinjiu had killed hawk-nosed, and the other was that Hei Xinjiu had changed from a handyman in the kitchen to an inner sect disciple.

If not for the first matter, everyone would definitely be discussing the second matter. There might even be some inner sect disciples who would come looking for trouble.

However, with the shock of the first matter, Yun Chujiu's place was like a Paradise!

Other than Leng Kui who came to congratulate her, no one dared to come over. Even the servants next door to Yun chujiu had used their connections to move away, afraid that this murderous female devil would kill her if she didn't like her.

For a moment, the surroundings of Yun Chujiu's courtyard became the new forbidden ground of the murderous Yuan sect. No one dared to go near it.
