

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3124

Yun chujiu brought a bunch of rabbits into the meeting hall. Master Baili and the other peak masters were in the middle of a meeting. When they saw Yun chujiu riding in on the rabbits, they immediately fell silent.

Yun chujiu jumped down from the giant rabbit and bowed respectfully. "Yun chujiu pays her respects to Master Baili and the other peak masters."

Everyone: "..."

Were their ears not working or was this little girl's brain not working? Yun Chujiu? She was Yun Chujiu? ! What kind of joke was this? !

After a strange silence, an Linchuan and Shangguan Hao chased into the meeting hall, an linchuan said incoherently, "Haha! You guys don't believe it either, right? I didn't believe it before either, but she is junior sister little jiu, the real junior sister little jiu."

Shangguan Hao glared at him and said respectfully, "Sect master, Peak Masters, Little Ninth Junior Sister has encountered some unforeseen circumstances, so she has become like this. She is indeed little ninth junior sister."

Everyone: "..."

After a while, mountain master he of Yuheng Peak coughed dryly and said, "That, that little ninth girl, my condolences. Ah, no, I mean you should be more open-minded. It's not that. Anyway, it's already like this, so don't be too sad."

Mountain masster zhuo of tianji peak consoled her, "Yes, little ninth girl, the world is unpredictable. Don't take it to heart."

The other peak masters also comforted her. Although they were all pale and weak, they at least expressed their concern.

Their thoughts were almost the same. This child had suffered a huge blow, so she might not be in good spirits. Otherwise, she wouldn't be mixed up with a group of strange-shaped rabbits. They probably shared the same fate!

Speaking of which, where did she find these strange-shaped rabbits?

Yun chujiu did not explain further. Instead, she said, "Master Baili, because of the contributions I made in the Battle of the Nightmare clan, the murderous Yuan sect has promoted me to an inner disciple. What do you think?"

Master Baili hurriedly nodded. "I will also promote you to an inner disciple immediately. Little Jiu girl, if you have any other requests, feel free to ask. Do you need me to send a few female servants to take care of you?"

Yun chujiu saw the pity and sympathy in Master Baili's eyes and almost had goosebumps all over her body, she repeatedly waved her hand, "If I have something to do, I will look for Jin Zhi and sister Bingyu. I just don't know why Master Baili called me back this time. What are your orders?"

"Ah, nothing much, nothing much. You should quickly go back and rest! That, you two are responsible for sending little jiu back to the dormitory safely." Master Baili quickly said.

Yun Chujiu's eyes flashed. They must have something they wanted her to do, but seeing that she had become smaller, they changed their minds.

Humph! Forget it, she just couldn't be bothered to meddle in other people's business.

After Hei Xinjiu bowed, she rode the giant rabbit and jumped out of the meeting hall with a bunch of rabbits.

Master Baili and the others looked at each other, then master baili sighed, "Let's put that matter aside for now! I didn't expect little jiu to become like this. It's really heartbreaking!"

Mountain Masster Zhuo and the others also sighed. How did a little girl suddenly become a little girl?

After Yun Chujiu came out of the meeting hall, she brought a bunch of rabbits back to the dormitory.

Along the way, she naturally received a lot of curious and gloating gazes. Hei xinjiu chewed on the spirit fruit and recorded the gloating people in the black ledger.

Meng Yanshou, who was riding on the long-haired rabbit, grinned from ear to ear!

Aiyo, the little girl from the Chaos Origin sect was even more dainty than the one from the murder origin sect. Spring was coming again!
