

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3129

Everyone was stunned by this loud bang!

Everyone looked in the direction where the loud bang had come from. They saw rocks rolling down from a small mountain peak in the distance, emitting black smoke. It was obvious that many talismans had exploded.

Everyone was shocked. who had done this?

Just as everyone was feeling bewildered, a soft child's voice said, "A bunch of idiots! The Nightmare Race has just stopped, and you're already killing each other? is that a head or a bun on your neck? !"

Following the voice, a large chopping board flew over from afar. On it stood a little girl that was carved out of jade. However, the expression on her face was very cold, causing people to subconsciously ignore that it was just a little girl.

Everyone looked at it and cursed! Wasn't this bad news, Yun Chujiu?

Didn't they say that she was missing? Where did she come from?

Moreover, she actually said that they were all idiots and that there was a bun on their necks? How dare she! Was she crazy?

Master Baili and Master Xiahou's expressions were also very ugly. They were already filled with anger. Now that Yun Chujiu's words were like adding oil to a fire, they naturally didn't have any good expressions.

Master Baili took a deep breath and said, “Yun Chujiu, seeing that you are young and ignorant, I will not pursue your crime of speaking without rhyme or reason. Your spiritual power is too low, why don’t you hurry back to the primordial chaos sect?”

At this time, Yun Chujiu had already flown above the crowd. This guy was sitting on the chopping board and did not jump down. She snorted slightly and said,

“My identity is a bit special. Do you think I am a member of the primordial chaos sect or the murderous sect? When you fight, do I still have to stare with my left eye and right eye, hit my right hand with my left hand and kick my right foot with my left foot?”

Master Baili paused for a moment, then he said, “Since your identity is special, don’t get involved in the matters of our two sects. Moreover, you’re just a small inner sect disciple. How can you have the right to speak? Why Don’t you hurry back to the Chaos Origin sect?”

“Sigh! We Can’t go back! You guys probably don’t know, right? It was because you idiots were instigated by others to sow discord, and then began to rebel against each other. Taking advantage of the critical moment when you guys went crazy here, the Divine Devil Hall has already occupied the chaos origin sect and the murder origin sect.

Now, you guys could fight to your heart’s content. After all, there was no sect left. It would be better if all of you were dead!

That’s right. Even if all of you were not dead, when the Nightmare clan and the Divine Devil Hall joined forces, you guys would still be dead. Sooner or later, you guys would have to die. You guys might as well fight in pairs.., “Just strangle each other to death!”Yun Chujiu said coldly while hugging her shoulders.

What? !

The chaos origin sect and the killing origin sect had already been taken over by the Divine Devil Hall?

They, could they really have fallen into the Divine Devil Hall's scheme?

Master Baili and Master Xiahou's faces immediately turned pale. Their bodies were drenched in cold sweat. Both of them took out their voice transmission talismans and trembled as they sent voice transmission talismans to the people left behind:

Master baili: "Zhuo, Mountain Masster Zhuo, you, are you still alive? The Chaos Origin sect, the chaos origin sect has really been taken over by the Divine Devil Hall?"

Mountain masster Zhuo was confused: "Sect master, What are you talking about? The chaotic origin clan is as usual! How are things over there?"

Master Baili:"..."

Mountain Master Xiahou: "Mountain Master Zhao, are you... are you still breathing? The killing origin clan, the killing origin clan has really been taken over by the Divine Demon Hall?"

The lively mountain master Zhao: "Sect master, are you cursing me? Don't you see the people from the Divine Demon Hall? Has the victor been decided?"

Master Xiahou:"..."
