

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3137

Yun Chujiu ate the sugar balls and followed the few cultivators out of the valley.

“Uncles, why haven’t you found my father and Mother?” Hei xinjiu tilted her head and asked anxiously.

“Little girl, we will take you to the city to find your father and mother. You will see them soon!” The man with the pointy mouth and monkey cheeks said perfunctorily.

Yun chujiu nodded gratefully. “You are really good people! Good people will be rewarded! I heard that if you do something bad, you will be struck by lightning. Please don’t do anything bad.”

Those few people curled their lips. Struck by lightning? If they were struck by lightning after doing something bad, they would have died hundreds of times!

Boom!

A bolt of lightning descended from the sky and struck the monkey-faced man. Although he was not seriously injured, it almost scared him to death!

The faces of the few of them turned pale. Could it be that they were really going to suffer retribution?

No, this must be a coincidence!

They were about to enter the city. As long as they made a move on this child, they would be able to obtain tens of thousands of high-grade spirit stones. At worst, they could just finish this job and quit in the future.

In the end, greed triumphed over fear, and the few of them brought Yun chujiu into the city.

Yun chujiu pondered in her heart. Her crow's mouth skill was sometimes effective and sometimes not. So far, she had not found the reason. What exactly was the reason for it?

When she came back to her senses, the few of them had already brought her to a place called Spring Joy Restaurant.

The corner of Yun Chujiu's eyes twitched. Furnace, Cauldron, and restaurant? Wasn't this the brothel in the eyes of cultivators? Were they planning to sell her here?

The madam was a gorgeous woman. When she saw Yun Chujiu's appearance, she was immediately stunned and returned to normal in an instant.

Others did not notice the change in the woman's expression, but Hei Xinjiu saw it clearly. Her heart thumped. Could she be a member of the Divine Devil Hall?

The woman bargained with those people and finally bought Yun chujiu for 30,000 high-grade spirit stones.

Yun chujiu looked at the backs of those cultivators and her eyes flashed. She had already poisoned their food. These people would not live past tonight.

"Little girl, where are you from? Did you get lost with your parents?" Li Niang asked in a gentle tone.

Yun chujiu saw that there was a probing look in her eyes but there was no malice. She thought of something and said, "My maternal family is the Mo family of Feng Li City in the western continent. It was because of my mischievousness that I got lost with them."

“The Mo family of Feng Li City? You said you are a member of the Mo family of Feng Li City?” Li Niang suddenly raised her voice.

Yun chujiu blinked her big eyes and asked curiously, “Aunt, do you know me?”

Li Niang was obviously lost in her own thoughts and ignored Yun Chujiu’s question. After a while, she muttered to herself, “Impossible! They don’t match at this age! Could it be... could it be... ?”

“Little girl, your mother... No, what’s your grandfather’s name?” Li Niang asked nervously.

“Mo Cheng! My Great-grandfather’s name is Mo Xiaoting!” Yun Chujiu replied crisply.

Li Niang immediately revealed a pleasantly surprised expression, “It’s... It’s really sister Lan’s granddaughter! This means that her daughter really didn’t die!”

Yun Chujiu’s heart skipped a beat. Sister Lan?

Did this Li Niang know her mother? Since Li Niang said that she really didn’t die, then there must be something else going on. Her mother must have said something to her. Could it be that Li Niang was her mother’s friend?

Yun chujiu was faintly excited. Could it be that her mother was not dead?
