

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3140

Li Niang's body trembled slightly. It must have been a bad memory.

"After we settled down here, Sister Lan bought this spring festival house. I was saved by Sister Lan from the furnace, cauldron, and Hall in the past, so I'm familiar with this kind of business.

The reason why sister Lan bought this spring festival house was firstly to hide her identity. After all, no one would have thought that she would hide here. Secondly, there were many guests coming and going here. It was also convenient to find out your whereabouts.

We had lived a peaceful life for two years. We did not expect that another group of people would come one day. The spiritual power of the people who came this time was much higher than the previous group. Not to mention fighting, we could not even withstand the pressure of those people.

Sister Lan knew that there was no point in resisting, so she did not say anything more and was taken away by them. From then on, I have never seen sister Lan." Li Niang said until here and burst into tears.

After Yun chujiu comforted Li Niang for a while, Li Niang finally calmed down. "Little Jiu, I think sister Lan is still alive. If those people wanted to kill her, they would have done it then and would not have taken her away."

Yun chujiu nodded. "Aunt Li, what you said makes sense. Those people must be trying to get something from my mother, or maybe my mother has some value.

I believe that my mother is still alive. I will definitely find her. Aunt Li, think about it again. Do you have any clues about what those people or my mother said?"

Li Niang shook her head. "Although your mother is a cheerful and open-minded person, she has never told me about your father and the background of those people. She is probably afraid that I will be implicated if I know more!"

Yun chujiu was slightly disappointed. There was no clue at all. Where could she find her mother!

“However, when those people threatened your mother, they seemed to have mentioned something about a low-level world like the immortal Yuan continent and something about being widowed,” Li Niang suddenly said.

Yun chujiu frowned. A low-level world like the Immortal Yuan continent? This meant that those people were definitely not from the immortal Yuan continent. They should be from the higher-level continents that Shanguan Hao and the others had mentioned.

A widow? Could it be that her biological father had died? Those people had taken her mother back to celebrate the festival for her father?

Yun Chujiu felt that the truth of the matter seemed to be covered by layers of fog. However, no matter what, at least there was news of her mother.

Yun chujiu stayed in Chunxi House for another two days. Then, she politely refused Li Niang’s request to stay and hurried back to the Hunyuan sect.

On the way, she heard the news that the primordial chaos sect and the murder origin sect were on bad terms. She was extremely anxious and hurried back, but it was still a little too late.

This guy thought about it and could only abduct the Stone Pi Xiu and the stone lion.

As for the method to abduct them, it was very simple. The world was so big, take them to have a look!

Yun chujiu did not hide anything from the Meng Yanshou. After explaining everything, she asked, “Curly hair, what is the name of the continent that is one level higher than the immortal origin continent?”

“There are many continents that are higher in level than the immortal Yuan continent. However, the nearest continent should be towering sky continent.”Meng Yanshou Thought for a while and said.

Yun chujie frowned. “Curly hair, there is something that I don’t quite understand. How did these high-level continents and low-level continents form? Why are there so many continents?”

Meng Yanshou pretended to walk on the ground twice before saying, “Well, you don’t know! When Hun Dun was first created, there was only one continent between heaven and Earth.”
