

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3148

The Foxes were completely enraged!

They chased after them crazily. Yun chujiu acted as if she did not see them and only urged the ancient violent bear to run faster.

The ancient violent bear was puzzled. This little demon could clearly kill those damn foxes, so why didn't he make a move?

How would it know that Yun Chujiu did not want to waste time.

Therefore, every time the foxes approached, Yun chujiu would throw out a stack of talismans, followed by the sound of the talismans exploding and the cries of the foxes.

After repeating this a few times, the Foxes stopped eating!

Damn it, this little girl was simply not human! How could she have so many talismans? ! Although those talismans were not fatal, they couldn't withstand the large number!

Yun chujiu encountered a few groups of demonic beasts on the way, but she managed to shake them off with her fastest speed. She was not in the mood to fight, she just wanted to see di beiming right away.

The immemorial violent bear was out of luck!

Yun chujiu did not sleep or rest, so it could only follow her and run forward without rest. When it was exhausted, it would remember that it had become a bear's companion, and it would suddenly become lively!

Just as it was about to reach the Hundred Thousand Feet Deep Ice Abyss, it was stopped by a huge ancient ice long.

The ancient violent bear could not help but tremble. This ancient Ice Long was a level 46 demonic beast, which was equivalent to the seventh to eighth level of the spiritual space realm of humans. could a little monster defeat it?

“Get lost! or I’ll kill you!” Yun Chujiu said coldly.

The ancient ice long looked at Yun chujiu with contempt. A little weakling at the first level of the spiritual space realm? And it still dared to talk nonsense to it? It really overestimated itself!

The ancient ice long opened its mouth, and several ice arrows shot towards Yun chujiu in all directions.

The violent ancient bear was scared silly!

Unexpectedly, the little girl on its back shot out small purple lightning bolts from her eyes one after another, splitting all the ice arrows into nothingness.

Whether it was the ancient ice long or the ancient bear, it was the first time they saw such a scene. Both of them had the same thought. God, what kind of monster is this? !

While the ancient Ice Long was in a daze, the purple lightning bolts gathered into a thick lightning bolt and struck at it!

The ancient ice long quickly moved its huge body to dodge. It did not expect the lightning bolt to turn around and strike at it again.

The ancient ice long roar was clearly a little dumbfounded!

How could this lightning turn around? It was not a spirit beast, so why did it look like it still had intelligence?

Before the ancient ice long could react, it saw the little girl release a group of spirit piglets. But strangely, those spirit piglets did not attack it. Instead, they began to kill each other.

The ancient Ice Long: "..."

What, what was going on? Were these piglets crazy? Why didn't they attack it? Why did the piglets bite the piglets instead?

Soon, it understood the reason!

Because da Hua had appeared out of thin air!

"Da Hua, stop it!"

After Yun Chujiu said that, she rode the dumbfounded ancient ice long towards the bottomless ice abyss.

The ancient ice long wanted to chase after it, but da Hua's huge body easily blocked its path. The two of them fought together.

Yun chujiu did not want to kill the ancient ice long. As long as Da Hua could stop it, it would be fine. Her only goal now was to see di beiming as soon as possible.

As they neared the hundred thousand feet deep ice abyss, the temperature dropped rapidly. Even the ancient violent bear with its thick fur could not withstand it anymore.

Yun chujia could only put it into her spirit beast bag and run forward with her short legs.
