

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3157

The woman clearly did not expect Xue Wuji to say this, and was momentarily stunned.

Seeing the woman's stunned expression, Xue Wuji felt that she must have been impressed by his suave, handsome, gentle, and considerate manner.

He had said it before. There was no woman in this world who would not like him, and this woman was no exception.

As he thought of this, his face became a little smug. He raised his eyebrows and said,

"Woman, you're staring at me with such affectionate eyes. Are you convinced by my charm?"

The woman could not move, but her eyes revealed a trace of coldness. "It's not dark yet!"

Xue Wuji was stunned at first, and then he became a little angry. So this meant that he was daydreaming? !

However, this anger quickly dissipated. Today was a good day for him to redeem himself. He could not be angered by a few words from this woman.

Thinking of this, Xue Wuji smiled. "I won't stoop to your level. Come, let's have a toast first. After that, you can scold me however you want."

A crafty look flashed across the woman's eyes. She could not move her hands, so she naturally could not drink the toast. As long as this scoundrel released her shackles, she would definitely teach him a lesson.

Xue Wuji had clearly thought of this problem. This damnable woman was as cunning as a fox. If she were to remove her shackles, she would definitely think of a way to escape.

However, if she did not remove her shackles, how would she drink the wine?

When the woman saw Xue Wuji's troubled expression, she curled the corners of her lips in disdain.

Xue Wuji suddenly chuckled. When the woman was puzzled, she saw Xue Wuji take a sip of wine and then bend over to feed her the wine.

The woman was both embarrassed and angry. How could she drink wine like this after exchanging a cup? !

Xue Wuji obviously felt that this method was really wonderful. In the blink of an eye, he fed the woman half a pot of spiritual wine.

The woman's cold face gradually turned red. Xue Wuji hooked the woman's chin and said with an evil charm, "Woman, after exchanging a cup of wine and drinking it, it's time to do something interesting."

Perhaps because of the spirit wine, the woman's expression was not so cold. She said provocatively, "Do you think I'm afraid of You? You're just a defeated opponent."

Xue Wuji gritted his teeth. This woman could always easily provoke him. She was really detestable to the extreme!

He would definitely let her know what it meant to be a husband!

..

Thinking of this, Xue Wuji punched the ice wall beside him in embarrassment and anger.

DAMN WOMAN!

For some reason, that woman actually broke free from his restraint.

When Xue Wuji thought that the woman would escape, she actually did not leave. It was exactly the same as before..

Xue Wuji was too tired. Although he tried his best to stay awake, he eventually fell asleep.

When he woke up, the woman was no longer in the cave.

However, there was a piece of spirit stone on the table and a note under it.

Xue Wuji was a little excited. Was this the address he left for him? Was she asking him to look for her in the future?

He hurriedly walked over and saw only two words on the note: "Wages."

Xue Wuji was so angry that he almost vomited blood. What the F * ck! He was only worth one spirit stone? ! And it was even a low-grade spirit stone! ! !

Xue Wuji hurriedly left the cave. Naturally, he could not find any trace of the woman. He angrily shouted, "Woman! Just you wait! The next time I see you, I will teach you a lesson!"

Unfortunately, his roar was in vain. The woman had long disappeared, so naturally, she could not hear his words.

It was just his self-consolation.
