

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3161

The two Stone Pi Xiu at the gate of the Hunyuan sect had obviously seen her. The one on the east side even winked at her.

The corner of Yun Chujiu's eyes twitched. She thought of a plan and gestured a few times with her hands.

The Stone Pi Xiu on the east side had followed Yun chujiu for some time, so it quickly understood.

Not long after, the Stone Pi Xiu on the east side made some noises.

The attention of the disciples guarding the mountain gate was immediately attracted by it. The Stone Pi Xiu on the east side waved its claws at them again.

Those disciples were flattered. The Guardian Stone Beast actually let them pass? Could it be that their opportunity had come? Hence, they all surrounded the Stone Pi Xiu on the east side.

Yun Chujiu took advantage of this opportunity and rushed into the Hunyuan sect with a whoosh.

Her current spiritual power was already much higher than those disciples'. In addition, those disciples' attention was on the Stone Pi Xiu, so no one noticed it.

The Stone Pi Xiu on the east side saw that Yun Chujiu had successfully sneaked in, so it immediately lazily stopped moving.

Those disciples guarding the gate could only return in disappointment, completely unaware that Hei Xinjiu had already sneaked in.

Yun chujiu simply smeared a few strands of hair on her face and then hung them down to cover a portion of her face. Only then did she leap towards the mixed origin square.

The entire mixed origin sect was decorated with a jubilant atmosphere. Even the trees by the roadside were tied with red cloth. The corner of Yun Chujiu's eyes twitched slightly. This looked like a wedding.

As she walked, she felt that something was amiss. Why didn't she meet any of the mixed origin sect disciples along the way?

Even if they were all curious to see the celebration, there should still be servants serving tea or dishes! Moreover, the celebration had already reached its end at this time, so there was nothing to see.

Yun chujiu could not help but stop in her tracks. After experiencing so many hardships, her vigilance had increased by more than a little.

Almost subconsciously, she took off the invisibility ring on her hand and squatted down in the bushes next to her.

Almost at the same time, Yun Chujiu felt a spiritual sense prying at her. She tried her best to reduce her presence. The spiritual sense paused for a moment and then disappeared.

Cold Sweat broke out on Yun Chujiu's forehead. Who on earth had such a powerful spiritual sense? And he had openly released his spiritual sense to pry at the primordial chaos sect?

Yun chujiu immediately had an ominous premonition in her heart. She recalled the gate-keeping disciples she had seen at the door just now, and only then did she realize that something was amiss.

Normally, the gate-keeping disciples of the primordial chaos sect would be assigned from each peak. Two people would be assigned from each peak to ensure that there would be no favoritism or malpractice.

However, those disciples seemed to be disciples of Tianxuan Peak. This did not conform to the sect's rules at all.

Were they all disciples of Tianxuan Peak?

Yun chujiu suddenly had a bad guess in her heart. Peak master Liu of Tianxuan Peak was usually quiet and had a very low sense of presence. Could it be that he was a member of the Divine Devil Hall?

Yun Chujiu's head buzzed. If Peak Master Liu of Tianxuan Peak was really someone from the Divine Devil Hall, then with him as an insider, it would be easy for him to do something to the food.

However, she did not know what poison they used this time. It did not seem to be the poison they used in the sky bearing alliance last time, because the incubation period of the poison used that time was seven days. Could it be the Netherworld Elixir?

Yun chujiu was squatting in the bushes and pondering when someone patted her from behind.
