

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3182

Yun chujiu held the voice transmission talisman tightly. The Yun family had finally come!

The voice transmission talisman trembled once again. Old Master Ye's aged voice carried a pleading and terrified tone as he said, "Little Nine Lass, come back quickly! Consider it as great-grandfather begging you! They want to kill your grandfather and your cousin Wenhong!"

Yun Chujiu's heart was filled with sorrow. In Old Master Ye's heart, she would never be able to compare to the ye family's interests, much less her grandfather and cousin Wenhong!

Back then, her mother was the one who was sacrificed, and she was the same today.

Even so, Yun chujiu could not bear for the Ye family to really be destroyed. After all, she would have to return to the Yun family sooner or later because ye Lan was still in their hands.

Yun chujiu calmed herself down and said, "I'll return immediately, but I'm very far from Ye city now. I might need twenty days."

After a full quarter of an hour, the voice transmission talisman began to vibrate again. It was likely that they had discussed and negotiated earlier.

"Little Jiu, they said that they would come back to the Ye family in twenty days. Come back as soon as possible! Sigh!"

Yun chujiu could hear some helplessness and guilt in the Old Master Ye's voice, but so what? In the end, she was still sacrificed.

Yun chujiu felt that in her previous life and this life, she had only experienced what was called true kinship in the Yun family of Qing Xuan Continent. As for the Mo family and the Ye family, they had taken advantage of it.

Ye Bingyu and her were not so much kinship as friendship. Even though her maternal grandfather and her second uncle had treated her well, it was more of an exchange of debts and benefits than pure kinship.

Yun chujiu curled the corners of her lips. Fortunately, she still had her mother. She had to save her mother from the Yun family!

So what if it was the Yun Family? So what if it was the sky high continent ? ! No one could stop her from doing what she, Yun Chujiu, wanted to do!

Yun chujiu turned her head and looked in the direction of the Bottomless Ice Abyss. Prince Charming, I will be waiting for you in the sky high continent!

Yun Chujiu silently muttered in her heart, then turned around and resolutely walked towards the edge of the ancient ice field.

Yun Chujiu didn't return to the Hun Yuan sect and the Shi Yuan sect. She only sent a voice transmission talisman to Master Baili and the others, briefly telling them what happened so that they wouldn't miss her.

On this day, Yun Chujiu arrived at the Ye family. Other than Ye Bingyu and Ye Bingying, all the members of the Ye family were present.

Old Master Ye said with tears streaming down his face, "Little Jiu girl, great-grandfather has let you down, but I have no choice! If you don't come back, those people will really destroy the Ye family."

Yun chujiu said indifferently, "Great-grandfather, I can go with the Yun family, but I have a few conditions. If you don't agree, I'll leave right now. You Can't Stop Me."

Great-grandfather ye's expression froze. Now, not to mention him, even the people of the primordial chaos sect might not be able to stop this little girl. He could only ask, "What conditions?"

"Raise grandmother Lan as a flat wife, and my mother will become the first daughter of the Ye family. I don't want to go to the Yun family. Someone is using this as an argument."

"Also, when my mother married my biological father, the Ye family did not pay a single dowry. They gave it all to me. Even if I go to the Yun family, I won't be so poor that I won't even have the money to reward the servants."

As soon as Yun Chujiu finished speaking, ge shi said sharply, "Impossible! You're simply wishful thinking! That B * tch from the Lan family still wants to be on equal footing with me? No Way!"

Ye Xinwan, who was at the side, also echoed, "That's right. Once a concubine for a lifetime, the LAN family still wants to become an equal wife?"? What a joke! Moreover, Ye Lan was clearly married to Mo Cheng back then, and now there's the Yun family. It's basically a private affair, a marriage, and even wants a dowry..."

Before ye Xinwan could finish her words, she was sent flying and fell unconscious with a choking sound.
