

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3191

Manager Liu was so angry that he almost fell off his horse. What did she mean by 'whatever he said'? When she said that, wouldn't it make people think that he was lying?

Sure enough, everyone was discussing animatedly. Although they didn't dare to say anything out loud, the meaning in their eyes was that they clearly felt that what Yun Chujiu said was true.

Yun chujiu stopped talking and sat on the giant rabbit, looking around.

In fact, she was a little nervous and excited. She was going to meet her mother, her own mother! ! No matter if it was her past life or this life, she had never met her own mother. How could she not be excited? !

Finally, they arrived at the Cloud King Mansion.

The Cloud King Mansion occupied a whole street. It was enough to show the power of the Cloud King Mansion.

The Yun mansion was decorated with lanterns and decorations, and it was a festive scene. There were many maids and servants lining up at the door to welcome them, but none of them were proper masters.

Yun chujiu curled her lips. She was a junior, and no one could say anything if Consort Yun did not come out. Moreover, she had already given enough face by arranging such a festive scene, so what could she say?

This consort Yun was most likely the biological mother of Princess Xi Yue, and she was definitely an old white lotus.

When the maids and servants saw Hei Xinjiu riding on the rabbit, they were obviously a little dumbfounded. They even forgot the lines that they had prepared at the beginning. They stared blankly at Hei Xinjiu and her rabbit.

After a moment, an old woman coughed and everyone said in unison, "Welcome Back, Miss Jiu."

Yun chujiu glanced at the old woman. This old woman must be a confidant of Princess Yun, the corners of her lips curled up. "Is this how you greet her? Just a word from your mouth is enough? Don't tell me that you don't even know how to bow when you see Master?"

Zhang Mama was shocked. Not only did this ninth young miss not have stage fright when she saw such a big gesture, she actually asked them to bow?

At this moment, there were already many people watching. Zhang Mama could only take the lead to bow to Yun chujiu and said again, "We welcome the ninth young miss back to the manor."

Yun chujiu did not say a word. Instead, she looked at the wide open courtyard door. She knew that outside the Yun mansion, it did not matter how she acted. Once she entered, these people would not have so many scruples, they must have prepared many insidious tricks for her.

However, what could she do? Just do it!

Yun chujiu straightened her back and slowly entered the Yun mansion.

Manager Liu and Zhang Mama looked at each other and followed her into the cloud mansion.

The servants also entered the cloud mansion one after another. The heavy door shut everyone's prying eyes.

The onlookers were all gossiping and whispering, "That ninth young miss is going to suffer!"

"Yeah, she's so pitiful. If the former King Yun was still here, she would be a proper princess. Now, she can't even be compared to a concubine's daughter."

"That's for sure. Although it's said that Consort Yun is virtuous and virtuous, this ninth young miss and her mother are her eyesores. It's impossible for her to treat them well. Otherwise, would that ninth young miss be able to ride a rabbit back? !"

"That's right. Moreover, I heard that the old Royal Highness and the old consort really look down on the Ye family. I reckon that they even look down on this ninth young miss. The mother and daughter will have a hard time!"

In a palace tens of thousands of miles away from an city in the towering sky continent, an extremely handsome man held a voice transmission talisman. The originally dense gloominess in his eyes faded a little. You're finally here! This time, there was nowhere to run.
