

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3209

The hall was very lively. According to common sense, only a few light coughs would be heard, so naturally, no one would hear it. However, everyone did hear it.

Everyone turned their heads to look at the entrance of the hall. They saw a red-clothed girl standing at the door. She didn't look too good, probably due to her weak body. The girl's body leaned slightly on one of the maids, seeing everyone's gaze, her face turned slightly red, as if she felt a little uncomfortable.

Everyone whispered to each other. Who Was this girl?

Someone exclaimed softly, "Ah, this should be the ninth miss of the Cloud King's mansion. She was just brought back from the previous phase. I heard that her body is not too good!"

"This little girl is really good-looking. She is even more beautiful than Princess Xi Yue. Unfortunately, she is a medicine jar. Otherwise, there would definitely be many people coming to her door to ask for her hand in marriage."

"Not only is she a medicine jar, there's a high chance that the previous Lord Yun has already met with misfortune. That ye family didn't even send the Yun family's Jade Archive. This ninth Miss's position in the Cloud King Manor is very delicate!"

The young lady seemed to have heard everyone's discussion, so she stubbornly made the maidservant beside her step back. The maidservant's face revealed a worried expression. Clearly, she was afraid that the young lady's body wouldn't be able to hold on, but she still retreated behind the young lady.

The girl bit her lip. The shyness and awkwardness on her face instantly turned into a bright and beautiful smile. She slowly walked into the hall with light steps.

Everyone couldn't help but gasp. If the girl had been like this at the beginning, perhaps they would only find it pleasing to the eye. However, the bright and beautiful smile at this moment was a strong contrast to the weak and sickly state from before, it was extremely stunning.

At this moment, everyone's gaze fell on the young lady. Even though the young lady's hands were trembling slightly due to her nervousness, it still could not hide the young lady's bright and beautiful appearance.

At this moment, everyone could not help but sigh in their hearts. She was indeed worthy of being the daughter of the god of war, Yun Fengjin. Such peerless beauty was truly stunning!

While everyone was amazed, they could not help but feel a little pity and pity. If Yun Fengjin was still here, there would be no need for Princess Xi Yue to be involved. She was the real princess.

Moreover, this ninth miss' health was not good, so her lifespan was probably limited! No family would marry such a short-lived daughter-in-law. Moreover, her spiritual power was very low. No matter how good-looking she was, it would be useless!

Princess Xi Yue's palm was bleeding from her fingernails. She was clearly the most popular woman at the banquet today, but she did not expect that this damn country bumpkin would steal the limelight. It was really hateful!

Although Princess Xi Yue's heart was filled with hatred, the smile on her face was still gentle. She took a step forward and blocked in front of Yun Chujiu, saying with concern,

"Ninth sister, are you feeling better?" Last time when you suddenly fainted, it scared grandmother quite a bit. Elder sister knows that you have just returned to the Yun residence and want to see the world. But today is grandmother's birthday banquet. Can your body hold up?"

Princess Xi Yue's words seemed to be incoherent, but the hidden meaning was very obvious. You are just a country bumpkin who wants to show off, but don't faint at grandmother's birthday banquet. It would be a disappointment and a disgrace!

The old imperial consort frowned slightly, and her heart was a little unhappy. The Birthday Banquet was a happy event, and if it was really disturbed by little jiu, it would really be bad luck.

Everyone looked at Yun chujiu with disdain and ridicule in their eyes. So it was to show off. No wonder she wore a red dress. Those from the lower continent were just not presentable!
