

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3212

Everyone cried out in surprise, especially some of the older madams. Their eyes were a little straight.

The exposed water pink was just a decoration on the cuff. Furthermore, it had to be covered with a cloth. At that time, it would only be faintly discernible.

The main body of the clothes was water blue. To be exact, it was a slightly darker blue than water blue. This way, the old consort would not feel very eye-catching when she wore it, and it would also be different from the original dark color.

Behind the old imperial consort, Ji Mama's eyes flashed. She remembered that the cloth that she had sent over was clearly aqua blue. How did it become such a suitable color for the old madam?

Not only was the color of the dress eye-catching, but the style was also novel that she had never seen before. The hem of the dress was embroidered with an elegant twig peony. It was luxurious and elegant.

The old madam simply could not put it down and could not wait to try it on immediately. Some of the older madams also praised it endlessly. Although the dress was not too expensive, the ninth miss' kindness was really rare.

At this moment, Yun Chujiu coughed a few more times. Everyone sighed. They heard that the ninth miss was not in good health and that she had only come because she had worked hard day and night to make the clothes. This filial piety was really touching.

In this comparison, although the tianxuan snow ginseng given by Princess Xi Yue was expensive, it was clearly not as thoughtful as the ninth miss.

The old princess looked at Yun Chujiu with love and affection. "Grandmother likes this birthday gift of little jiu very much, but you are not in good health, so don't work too hard in the future."

Yun Chujiu's small face instantly blushed, and it could be seen that she was very excited. Her eyes were slightly red. "As long as grandmother likes it, Little Jiu is too happy."

Seeing this, the old imperial consort was even more moved in her heart. This child was really pure and filial. She had misunderstood her previously.

"If your body isn't good, then don't stand. Quickly find a place to sit down."

Yun chujiu said timidly, "Grandmother, I'm not tired. I want to stand behind you and serve you. I, I want to be closer to you, okay?"

Seeing Yun Chujiu's longing and somewhat apprehensive gaze, the old imperial consort's heart instantly trembled. Although Yun Chujiu's appearance resembled the ye family, she could faintly see Yun Fengjin's shadow, the old imperial consort thought of her second son, whose fate was unknown, and her heart instantly softened.

"Come over! Someone, add a chair behind me and let little jiu sit behind me."

Yun chujiu immediately smiled brightly. Her bright and beautiful smile instantly made people feel that the entire hall seemed to brighten up a bit. She walked to the old imperial consort's side, she hugged the old imperial consort's arm and said, "Thank you grandmother. Grandmother, you are the best, Best, best grandmother in the world!"

The old consort lightly rebuked, "You're quite a big girl. What kind of manners are you wearing? !"

Although the old consort said so, she did not break free from Yun Chujiu's embrace. It was not until Ji Mama Got Someone to bring a chair over that Yun Chujiu finally let go of the old consort's arm.

Zheng Shi was so angry that she almost fainted!

This old fool! His eyelids were too shallow! A piece of tattered clothes was bought over? He actually let that cheap bastard sit behind her! ! Didn't this mean that among the younger generation of the Yun family, that cheap bastard had the highest status? ! This was a slap to Xi Yue's face!

Princess Xi Yue tried her best to appear elegant and generous, but she felt that everyone was mocking her, mocking her for being inferior to a country bumpkin from a low-grade continent!

"His Highness the Crown Prince has arrived!"

"His Highness the second Prince has arrived!"

"His Highness the third Prince has arrived!"

"His Highness the fourth Prince has arrived!"

"His Highness the fifth Prince has arrived!"

..