

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3243

Hei Xinjiu stopped crying, she hugged the old princess' arm and said, "Grandmother, I'm really scared. "Since eldest uncle dared to kill me and Ji Mama, he might do something to other people. Maybe he will hurt you and grandfather, too. I don't dare to think about it..."

The old princess' face suddenly changed. If that bastard was pushed to a corner, he might really jump over the wall in desperation. She really should be on guard.

Yun chujiu stole a glance at the old imperial consort's expression and continued, "Grandmother, as the saying goes, you can't do two things at once. It's better to distract first uncle and first aunt's attention. That way, they won't have the time to do anything bad."

The old imperial consort listened to Yun Chujiu's words thoughtfully, but she didn't say anything. She comforted Yun chujiu for a while before letting her go back.

After Yun Chujiu left, the old imperial consort asked Ji Mama, "Do you think little ninth's words just now were intentional?"

Ji Mama's heart was like a muttering dog. What could she say? !

She could only say vaguely, "This, this servant can't say for sure. Perhaps ninth young miss was frightened, so she was a little agitated."

The old imperial consort nodded. "You're right. Little ninth is kind-hearted, so she definitely doesn't have so many twists and turns. Sigh, this child is really too naive."

Ji Mama wished she could shout out a few words. Old Princess Consort, are you blind? Which Eye did you see that she was kind-hearted? She was kind-hearted? She was simple-minded? She was simply a little devil who killed without batting an eyelid, okay?

However, Ji Mama did not dare to say it out loud. For some reason, she felt that ninth young miss was even more terrifying than King Yun.

Seeing that Ji Mama did not look too well, the old princess thought that she was frightened, so she did not pay too much attention to it. She said, "What do you think can distract the eldest couple?"

Ji Mama recalled what the Little Devil had told her before and said tentatively, "Master, the Princess is jealous. Why Don't you do something about it? If the two of them fight, they will naturally have no time to care about ninth young miss."

"Besides, third madam and the princess have not been on good terms. If you give some real power to third madam in the inner residence, the princess will have even less time to care about ninth miss."

The old princess nodded. "The first thing is for you to get someone to do it. The second thing is for me to do."

After Hei Xinjiu returned to her courtyard, she released the news that her old illness had relapsed.

The Old Princess Consort thought that this fellow was frightened and hurriedly invited the imperial physician to come over to take a look. However, the conclusion was the same as last time. She could only recuperate slowly and there was really no good way.

The old princess consort had no choice but to have someone take good care of her. From time to time, she would send Ji Mama over to take a look.

When the people of the Yun residence saw that the old princess consort valued Hei Xinjiu so much, they also came over to take a look. When the He Shi arrived, Yun Chujiu asked Xi Hua and Xi Xue to keep an eye on the outside, she respectfully bowed to the he shi, "Third aunt, Little Jiu thanks you for saving my life."

The he shi smiled, "Little Jiu, you're too polite. The people that third aunt sent were originally to protect you."

Yun chujiu smiled faintly, "Although that's the case, I still have to thank third aunt. Those guards left in a hurry and I didn't have the time to properly thank them. Third aunt, take me to pass these spirit stones to them."

He Shi saw the extra one million upper grade spirit stones in her storage ring, and was instantly shocked. "This, this, little jiu, this is too much, isn't it?"

"Third aunt, the kindness of saving a life should be repaid with a gushing spring. This isn't much at all.". "In addition, when I was talking to grandmother earlier, I mentioned third aunt a few times. According to grandmother, she wanted to hand over some matters of the imperial residence to you to take care of!"
