

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3246

Hei xinjiu blinked her eyes and decided to go to the shops on the street when she had time. If there were good puppets, she would buy a few and then modify them herself.

The next day, he shi came again in the name of delivering pastries.

He Shi and Yun Chujiu had a simple discussion, then he shi left in high spirits.

After a few days, Yun Chujiu heard Xi Hua gloating over Xi Hua's misfortune and reported to her that Zheng Shi and Yun Fengjian were quarreling with each other.

Then, the old consort found Zheng Shi and gave the matter of clothes and cosmetics to he shi. Zheng Shi was so angry that she quarreled with he shi on the spot, after that, it was the old consort who reprimanded the two of them and then stopped.

Yun chujiu curled her lips. This was just the beginning. Take it slow. There was no rush.

This fellow felt that his illness should have recovered, so he went to greet the old imperial consort and the Old Royal Highness.

After acting coquettishly, Hei Xinjiu said with a smile, "Grandmother, I want to go shopping on the street. I've been holding it in for the past few days."

The old princess said with a smile, "That's true. You can go shopping then. Just ask them to come to the Yun mansion to settle the bill. I'll send some guards to protect you in secret."

Hearing that she did not need to spend money, the smile on Yun Chujiu's face became even brighter. The old princess was so coaxed that she could not even find the north.

Ji Mama curled her lips in her heart. The old princess was usually quite shrewd. How could she be blind when she met this ninth young miss? Why did she feel that such a cruel and cunning little devil was pure and kind?

Hei Xinjiu happily brought Xi Hua and Xi Xue out of the Cloud King's mansion and soon arrived at the South Street, which was filled with shops.

Because of the image of Hei Xinjiu riding on the 'glory' of the rabbit and the rumors spread by Princess Xi Yue, many people were pointing fingers at Hei Xinjiu.

"Do you see that? She is the ninth miss of the cloud mansion! She is the ninth miss who refused the imperial preceptor without knowing what was good for her."

"TSK tsk, she is quite good-looking. No wonder the Imperial preceptor took a fancy to her. There must be something wrong with her brain. Otherwise, why would she refuse the Imperial Preceptor?"

"I think so too. Other people ride wildebeest, but she actually rode a broken rabbit. Moreover, I heard that she shamelessly said that she had done something outrageous with a wild man."

"Hehe, I also heard about it. What do you mean by touching or not touching? She's really shameless! No wonder even the Divine Phoenix didn't accept her. Even I don't want such a piece of trash, let alone the Divine Phoenix."

Xi Hua and Xi Xue's faces flushed red. They glared at those people angrily, wishing that they could go over and give those people a good beating.

Yun chujui laughed lightly and motioned for the two of them to calm down. She jumped down from the rabbit and then looked at those people who were gossiping.

When those people saw Yun chujui looking at them with a faint smile, they could not help but feel a little guilty. Some of them shouted, "What are you looking at? Did We say something wrong? You rejected the national master to begin with. You have no sense of shame."

Yun Chujui's smile deepened. She pointed at the people who were talking and said, "Men, send these people who are slandering the national master to the government."

Immediately, the guards who were secretly protecting Yun chujui controlled the people who were talking. Those people immediately became anxious. "What right do you have to say that we slandered the imperial tutor? You are slandering us!"

Yun chujui sighed faintly. "I am someone who the imperial tutor wants to take in as a disciple. You say that I am worthless. Aren't you slandering the Imperial Tutor's judgment? "So, you are slandering the imperial tutor. Take him away. The government will have a verdict."
