

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3270

Phoenix Egg!

These three words flashed through the minds of the few demonic beasts!

At the same time, they stretched out their claws to grab the 'Phoenix Egg'. Not giving in to each other, they naturally started fighting again.

At the same time, the high-level demonic beasts behind also rushed forward. When they saw that the phoenix feathers had been divided up by the few demonic beasts, just as they were disappointed, they discovered that there was actually a 'Phoenix Egg' on the ground!

Immediately, as if they had been injected with stimulants, they joined the battle as well. The battle immediately turned dark.

Hei Xinjiu jumped onto the back of Chi Xiao and watched the show happily.

Go ahead, go ahead. The battle was so intense that it would be a shame if the 'Phoenix Egg' did not break.

As Hei Xinjiu expected, the demon beasts were fighting for the 'Phoenix Egg' when they accidentally broke the 'Phoenix Egg' and spilled the egg liquid all over the ground.

The demon beasts were dazed for a moment before they snatched the remnants of the 'Phoenix Egg' crazily. Even the wild grass that was stained with the egg liquid was swallowed by them.

Hei Xinjiu was secretly happy. The cleaner the egg was, the better it would be. There would be no trace of it at all! As for the feathers, nobody knew them. Even if someone knew them, they would say that the Phoenix collected them on its own. How could they blame it on her? !

Hei xinjiu tugged at Chi Xiao's fur fiercely. "Idiot, Hurry up and act regretful! If you hadn't fainted, wouldn't the Phoenix Egg be yours? !"

Chi Xiao was furious!

However, he didn't dare to disobey. He stomped the ground and roared. He looked like he was going to die anyway.

Hei Xinjiu also showed a regretful expression, she sighed and muttered, "Sigh! If only I didn't faint just now. It's really strange. Why did Phoenix come here to lay eggs? Why didn't she lay eggs in the previous fire pit?"

When the demon beasts heard Yun Chujiu's muttering, their hearts trembled. They immediately imagined the "Truth" of the matter. The Divine Phoenix must have used the fake nirvana pearls to attract their attention and then came here to lay eggs, however, they did not expect Chi Xiao to come here..

It was also possible that the Divine Phoenix had deliberately lured the little girl here. After all, the Divine Phoenix was looking after her and perhaps wanted her to bring the Phoenix Egg out.

If they had come a step later, the little girl might have kept the Phoenix Egg. Fortunately, they came in time. Although they only got a little residue, they felt that their body was filled with a lot of spiritual power. It was indeed worthy of being the Phoenix Egg.

When those demonic beasts thought of this, they suddenly felt a little proud and began to roar arrogantly.

Chi Xiao's face showed an angry expression, but in his heart, he cursed. F * CK, a group of idiots! They were fooled by the little girl!

Bullsh * T Phoenix Egg! That was just an ordinary demonic bird egg!

The Real Little Phoenix was in the smelly girl's spiritual beast bag!

Hei Xinjiu knew that she had to put on a full show. She was so dejected that she even asked Chi Xiao to look around in the bushes. Naturally, there was nothing else.

The Crown Prince and the others watched from afar and guessed the same thing as the demon beasts.

Although they were a little surprised that Yun chujiu was not burned to death, they did not take it to heart since she had a criminal record.

Hei Xinjiu let out a long sigh. "Sigh! I got up early and rushed to the evening fair. I was busy for the whole day and did not make any noise! If I had known this would happen, I would have kept the bead.

"By the way, which one of you got the bead? "It was originally mine. I was out of my mind and threw the bead out because it was too hot. If any of you found it, give it back to me!

And give me back my shovel, which I bought for spiritual stones!"
