

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3274

However, when the crowd saw more than a dozen high-level demonic beasts running toward them, they were so frightened that their claws went numb!

The crown prince's expression also changed. Those high-level demonic beasts actually listened to this slut?

Princess Xi Yue said from the side, "Your Highness, we still need to pick the fiery fruits first. It's not too late to deal with other matters after we leave the Divine Phoenix Valley."

The crown prince knew that Princess Xi Yue was giving him a way out. He thought to himself, well, when we return to an city, let's see how he will deal with this B * Tch! She actually dared to openly oppose him. She was simply courting death!

The Crown Prince glared fiercely at Yun Chujiu, then turned around and left.

Once the crown prince left, those sons of noble families naturally followed him. The fifth Prince hesitated for a moment, but still followed the crown prince.

Yun Xilian was dragged by Yun Zhichen and left reluctantly.

Yun chujiu looked at the back of the crowd with a faint expression, then turned her head to look at the dozen or so high-level demonic beasts that ran over. These high-level demonic beasts naturally weren't protecting Hei Xinjiu, they just wanted to eat the crown prince and the others.

Therefore, the demonic beasts didn't stop and continued to chase ahead.

When the Crown Prince and the others saw the high-level demonic beasts chasing after them, they immediately went into a mess. They screamed and ran forward, and soon, they disappeared without a trace.

Yun chujiu curled her lips and said to Chi Xiao, "Big Fatty, let's Go! Let's go to the fire pit and see if there are any good things."

Yun Chujiu's words were naturally for the high-level demonic beasts that were still observing her. She was putting on a show so that they would not be exposed. At this moment, Chi Xiao also wished that he could stay away from these high-level demonic beasts. Thus, he carried Hei Xinjiu and quickly left.

After Hei Xinjiu arrived at the fire pit, not to mention finding the broken shovel, she naturally kept it in her storage ring. Then, she rummaged around and finally left with a sigh.

The high-level demonic beasts that followed her dispersed. Hei xinjiu heaved a sigh of relief in her heart. It seemed that those demonic beasts had completely believed her words.

Hei xinjiu counted with her fingers. The Divine Phoenix Valley would close in two days. When she left the Divine Phoenix Valley, the Crown Prince and Princess Xi Yue would definitely make things difficult for her. She had to think of a way to escape.

For the next two days, Hei Xinjiu hid in a cave for peace and quiet. She did not go out to show off.

Finally, it was the day when the Divine Phoenix Valley would close. After the crown prince left the Divine Phoenix Valley, he waited for Yun Chujiu at the entrance of the valley with a cold expression.

These two days, he had been chased like a stray dog by those high-level demonic beasts. All of this was caused by that B * Tch Yun Chujiu. Today, he had to kill her.

Yun Zhichen secretly sent a voice transmission talisman to the He Shi, telling her to quickly find the old consort. Other than that, he really couldn't think of any other good ideas.

Finally, Yun Chujiu slowly walked out of the Divine Phoenix Valley.

Those sons of noble families instantly surrounded Yun chujiu in the middle. Now, this Yun Chujiu no longer had chi Xiao and those demonic beasts. Let's see how she would continue to show off.

The crown prince laughed coldly, "Kill this B * Tch! I will bear all the consequences myself."

Those people were just about to make a move when hei xinjiu coldly said, "Your Highness, don't forget how my father got the title of God of War! If the Yun family Army finds out that you killed me, do you think you can still hold on to your position as the Crown Prince?"

The crown prince's expression froze. Although the Yun family army had always been present, their real fame shook the four countries because of Yun Fengjin.

In the hearts of the Yun family Army, Yun Fengjin was like a god. Although this Yun Chujiu was only a little girl and would not do much, if the Yun family army found out that he had killed her.., it might really cause some trouble.
