

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3286

Hei Xinjiu glared at Qiong Qi. She did not expect Qiong Qi's huge head to turn red. "Little Fairy, when you look at me like that, I feel numb all over. I'm going to faint from happiness!"

Hei Xinjiu:"..."

Hei Xinjiu felt that if she did not put away this idiot, her worldview would explode. With such a weirdo by her side, even a good person would be corrupted.

After Yun chujiu put away qiong qi and Tao Wu., the little black bird glared at Xiao Heiniaio and cursed, "Bah! That B * Stard Qiong Qi! Master, I'm telling you, it's not a good thing. Even if you find an extremely cold place, don't let it take out its shell. Otherwise, it will ruin your reputation."

Yun chujiu looked at the little black bird with a faint smile, "Xiao Hei, why didn't you scold it in front of Qiong Qi just now?"

Xiao Heiniaio shrunk its neck. "I'm not afraid of it. I'm afraid of hurting it too much. After all, it's already so pitiful. If I hurt it again, what if it commits suicide?!"

Yun chujiu was too lazy to expose it. She looked at the six ten-thousand-year-old mysterious chains with shining eyes, ran over, and pulled with all her strength.

She did not expect that the five-colored phoenix was "Dead", so Hei Xinjiu used too much strength and fell on her butt.

Ignoring the pain in his butt, he pulled the other five ten-thousand-year-old black iron chains out.

Then, it was a tragedy!

The entire stone hall shook violently. The place was about to collapse.

Hei Xinjiu then remembered that the teleportation array was on the stone platform, but she forgot to ask how to open the teleportation array. Would she be crushed to death under it?

Just as Hei Xinjiu was regretting her decision, Xiao Heiniaio said, "Master, you hold the Phoenix Egg. I don't believe that the Phoenix Egg doesn't know how to get out."

Hei Xinjiu's eyes lit up. She quickly carried the huge Phoenix Egg onto the stone platform.

The Phoenix Egg shimmered. When Hei Xinjiu regained her sight, she found herself standing in front of the state preceptor and the others, holding the huge Phoenix Egg in her hand..

F * ck!

It was all because of that stupid Xiao Heiniaio! ! This was bad. How was she going to explain this Phoenix Egg? !

If these people knew that this was a phoenix egg, wouldn't she become monk Tang's flesh? It was over! It was over! This time, she was really screwed by that Idiot Xiao Heiniaio!

Xiao Heiniaio was holding his breath, this master of Hei Xinao! If it hadn't come up with a good idea, she would have been crushed to death. Now, she was blaming it, this was infuriating!

Hei Xinjiu subconsciously put the Phoenix Egg into the spirit beast pouch. She thought to herself, if these people wanted to ask, she would deny it to death. She would just say that their eyes were playing tricks on them!

At this moment, the altar under Hei Xinjiu's feet also began to tremble violently. It was obvious that it was about to collapse. Hei Xinjiu hurriedly jumped down from the altar. She did not want to be buried alive.

In the blink of an eye, the altar disappeared in front of everyone, leaving only a bare empty space.

Everyone was shocked by the unexpected turn of events, and no one said anything for a moment.

Hei Xinjiu's heart was in a mess. It was over! It was over!

The altar had disappeared, and people had discovered the Phoenix Egg. She would definitely be beaten up later. Why was her life so miserable! !

After a long while, the National Master asked with a sorrowful expression, "Yun Chujiu, what did you do? Why did the altar disappear? Did you offend the Divine Phoenix?"

Yun chujiu blinked her eyes. This old fraud actually did not mention the Phoenix Egg. Could it be that they did not see the Phoenix Egg that she was holding?
