

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3298

After Yun Chujiu returned to the Yun mansion, other than going to the old prince and the old princess' place to build a good impression of her, she would cultivate in her room obediently.

Unexpectedly, the fifth Prince would come to court her every two or three days. Yun Chujiu was simply annoyed.

It just so happened that he was a prince. The Yun mansion could not stop him from entering.

Yun chujiu had no choice but to announce that she was going into closed-door cultivation and would not see any guests.

Only then did the fifth Prince Calm down a little. However, he still sent over many things from time to time.

In an instant, the entire East Phoenix Country knew that the fifth Prince had a special liking for Yun Chujiu. Hei xinjiu instantly became the object of envy and hatred for many women.

Everyone sighed with emotion. Even though the fifth prince knew that Yun Chujiu could not get married, he still treated her so well. What was the reason?

It was because of love!

Such a loving man was simply hard to find in this world!

After Yun Chujiu heard the rumors from Xi Hua, she could not help but scoff. A loving man? The fifth prince only coveted her identity as the Divine Phoenix Emissary and the Yun family army.

Thinking of the Yun family Army, Yun chujiu then remembered that the Su Lian arranged for Yun Fengjian was about to succeed.

Once she obtained the Tiger Talisman, her grandfather would ask the imperial edict to remove Yun Fengjian's title as the King of Yun. At that time, she would at least be temporarily safe in the King of Yun's mansion.

However, before that, she should let Yun Zhifeng cause some trouble. Otherwise, it would not be good if the saint martial emperor allowed him to inherit the King of Yun.

Yun chujiu asked Yun Zhichen to tell her thoughts, and Yun Zhichen naturally agreed without hesitation. Only when Yun Zhifeng was stripped of his title as the Crown Prince would he have a chance to become the crown prince, or even the King of Yun.

Within a few days, Yun Zhifeng had made a fool of himself because he was competing with someone for the top position of a furnace, a cauldron, and a pavilion. Yun Fengjian was so angry that he gave him a good beating.

Just as Yun Chujiu was feeling proud that everything was going according to her plan, something big happened in the East Phoenix Country!

Martial Emperor Shengwu had died suddenly!

Soon after, the news spread that the fifth prince was the murderer.

Then, the news that the Crown Prince had killed the fifth prince and ascended to the throne was announced. He was given the title of Martial Emperor Wen.

It happened so suddenly that Hei Xinjiu did not have time to react. By the time she did, there was no turning back.

After Martial Emperor Wen ascended to the throne, he immediately issued a decree to confer Princess Xi Yue the title of Empress and to marry her in half a month.

Yun chujiu immediately felt the seriousness of the situation. Leng tianche became the emperor, and Princess Xi Yue became the empress. The Zheng Shi and Yun Fengjian would be even more powerful, not to mention that the civil and martial emperor hated her to the bone, if it weren't for the Divine Phoenix Emissary as a protective talisman, the civil and Martial Emperor would have issued a decree to kill her long ago.

Yun Chujiu was puzzled. What exactly happened?

She naturally did not believe that the fifth Prince would commit patricide. It was highly likely that Leng Tianche had orchestrated it himself. However, Leng Tianche was hot-tempered. How could he be so scheming and ruthless? Who was the one who gave him the idea?

Following Princess Xi Yue's wedding, the status of the old Duke and the old consort in the Yun mansion plummeted. Zheng Shi and Yun Fengjian could not even be bothered to put on a show.

Yun chujiu felt that if this continued, Emperor Wen Wu and Yun Fengjian would probably make a move against her. She had to turn the passive into the active.

Yun chujiu found Yun Zhichen. Yun zhichen sighed again and again. "Little Jiu, things happened too suddenly. I think we should cancel our plan.

The current emperor is not like the previous emperor. Even if grandfather obtained the Tiger Talisman, the emperor will not strip away the title of first uncle. If things go wrong, he might even punish grandfather."
