

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3311

Emperor Nan Xuan pursed his lips. "No matter what, she's still a little girl. Naturally, she's a little thin-skinned. She came in fourth. I guess she's a little scared!"

Emperor bei Jing echoed, "You're right. Ever since Yun Fengjin went missing, the East Phoenix Kingdom has always been in fourth place. Moreover, her points are pitifully low. Naturally, she doesn't want to come and embarrass herself."

Emperor Xiwen laughed, "She has to come even if she doesn't want to. After all, she is the emperor of the East Phoenix Kingdom!" "This little girl is good at doing business, but running a country is not like doing business. This time, let's show her what she is capable of."

While the three of them were mocking each other, they heard the sound of drums in the distance. The drumbeats were so excited that the surrounding crowd couldn't help but make way for them.

The three of them looked up and saw several flags fluttering in the wind. On each flag, there were large golden words:

"Female Emperor of Zephyr's beauty is unparalleled in the world!"

"Female Emperor of Zephyr's beauty is like a fish in water, like a swan in the lake, like a swan in the moon, like a flower in shame!"

"Female Emperor of Zephyr's beauty is invincible!"

..

Regardless of whether it was the three emperors or the surrounding crowd, only three words flashed through their minds — Shameless!

This empress Fenghua was too shameless! Was it really good to brag so much?

The faces of the people of the East Feng Kingdom were also a little stiff. Your Majesty, can we not be so smug? This seemed to be a little too much, right?

Very soon, everyone knew that there was no such thing as the most excessive, only more excessive!

The soldiers holding the flags stood on both sides and separated the crowd. Only then did the crowd realize that there was an extremely luxurious sedan chair behind the soldiers.

Emperor Nan Xuan looked at the beaded curtain hanging down in front of the palanquin and could not help but suck in a breath of cold air. Wasn't this the shimmering mussel pearl? In the world, one could only buy one pearl for 100,000 high-grade spirit stones. This little girl actually used it to make a beaded curtain?

Not to mention other things, this beaded curtain was worth over 100,000,000! What a waste!

At this time, a palace maid came forward and spread the pure white ground-shaking snow cashmere all the way to the VIP area.

Emperor Nan Xuan and the other two were dumbstruck. Although this ground-shaking snow cashmere was not as precious as the shimmering clam pearl, it should at least cost millions of high-grade spirit stones, right? Just like that? That little girl's feet were that precious?

Just as the three of them were cursing in their hearts, they saw the guards and palace maids kneeling on the ground with a plop. They shouted loudly, "Welcome Your Majesty! Your Majesty's country-toppling and city-toppling magnificence is unparalleled in the world!"

The unanimous shouts shocked everyone. Some merchants and onlookers of the East Phoenix kingdom could not help but kneel on the ground.

Even if they did not want to kneel, under the influence of this atmosphere, their legs could not help but feel a little weak. They had an impulse to submit and worship.

Not to mention the subjects of the East Phoenix Kingdom, even the subjects of the other Three Kingdoms also knelt on the ground in confusion. It seemed that under this situation, it was a great act of treason to stand.

Emperor Nan Xuan and the other two saw that nearly half of the people had knelt down, and they were so angry that they were twitching. Even if they used their toes to think, it was impossible for all of them to be from the East Feng Kingdom. There must be people from the Three Kingdoms.

Were these people crazy?

They actually knelt down to worship that lass from the East Feng Kingdom. It was really infuriating!

While the three of them were angry, they looked at the palanquin. They wanted to see just what kind of virtue the female emperor of Zephyr had to actually make so many people submit to her!

A palace maid first opened the beaded curtain and then lifted a layer of gauze curtain. Empress Jiu, who was dressed in red, stepped down from the palanquin..
