

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3316

Emperor Nan Xuan and the other two did not expect Yun chujiu to ask this question, and they were momentarily stunned.

The divine beasts of their three countries naturally did not select any divine beast envoys, and they did not have the honor to see the Phantom of the Divine Beast.

Yun chujiu continued, "I wonder how the three National Advisors of our country conduct themselves? Our National Advisors of the East Phoenix country are quite amiable."

When it came to imperial advisors, the expressions on Emperor Nan Xuan and the other two did not look too good.

Yun chujiu had long since understood that compared to the imperial advisors of the East Phoenix Kingdom, the Imperial Advisors of the other three kingdoms were much more arrogant and despotic. Although they would not interfere in the affairs of the kingdom, they would still be forced to eat and drink, some of them even had to choose beautiful girls to accompany them.

"It is hard for us to judge the character of the imperial advisors. Emperor Fenghua, I heard that you have lived in the immortal Yuan continent since you were young. No wonder you value business so much."

Emperor Nan Xuan was obviously unwilling to talk about the imperial preceptor. The Imperial preceptor was sent by the Li Hen Palace. Unless they did not want to be the emperor, they would only offend the imperial preceptor.

The subtext of Emperor Nan Xuan's last few sentences was obvious. He was mocking Yun chujiu for being greedy.

Who would have thought that Yun chujiu would lightly smile. “Your Majesty Nan Xuan is right. My greatest strength is my greed for money. Perhaps the Divine Phoenix likes this about me, that’s why she chose me to be the Divine Phoenix Envoy.”

The corners of Emperor Nan Xuan’s and Yun Chujiu’s eyes fiercely twitched. Damn it, the Divine Phoenix was not a Pi Xiu! How could it choose you just because you were greedy for money? What a load of nonsense!

The four of them chatted dryly for a while more. Before they parted, Yun chujiu faintly said, “The three of you, how can you allow others to sleep on the side of your bed? You still have to be on guard against what you should be on guard against! That’s all I have to say. The three of you, please reconsider.”

Emperor Nan Xuan and the other two were taken aback. They were not fools, so they naturally knew that Yun chujiu was referring to the Li Hate Palace.

They naturally knew that the Li hate palace was using them as puppets, but what could they do. ! Not to mention them, even if the four countries were tied together, the Li Hate Palace could crush them to death with a single finger.

Perhaps he felt that Yun Chujiu’s words were sincere, but emperor Nan Xuan rarely advised her, “Your Majesty Fenghua, not to mention our low-grade small countries, even high-grade countries do not dare to be enemies with the Li Hate Palace. I advise you to give up on this idea!”

Yun Chujiu revealed a brilliant smile, “Thank you for your good intentions, Emperor Nan Xuan. There is nothing impossible in this world. If you are too cautious and do not take the first step, you will forever be under the control of others.”

Emperor Nan Xuan and the other two were truly shocked by Yun Chujiu’s smile and words. It seemed that they had underestimated this little girl!

This little girl's ambition was definitely not limited to the four kingdoms. Could it be that she really wanted to be enemies with the Li Hen Palace? Was she crazy?

After the three of them walked for a distance, they looked at each other. Emperor Xiwen lowered his voice and said, "That little girl won't be so bold as to really make an enemy of the Lihen Palace, right?"

Emperor Nan Xuan asked suspiciously, "That little girl is as smart as a monkey. She won't do such a stupid thing, right?"

Emperor bei Jing frowned. "Could that little girl be trying to trick US and then report us to the Lihen Palace?"

The three of them looked at each other, and the more they thought about it, the more they felt that this was the case!

Damn it! That girl was too evil! She could even think of such an evil method?

Fortunately, they didn't fall for it. It was better to be careful when dealing with this girl in the future!
