

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3318

Emperor Nan Xuan asked disdainfully, "Why? Is Your Emperor Fenghua afraid of losing again today, so she doesn't dare to come?"

"Your Majesties, my emperor has some urgent matters to take care of at the last minute. He will probably be here in the afternoon," prime minister Sima said in a neither servile nor overbearing manner.

He thought to himself, their emperor's skin was thicker than the city walls. Why would she be afraid of losing face? ! She was... catching up on her sleep!

Emperor Nan Xuan and the other two exchanged a look, saying that they were not afraid of losing? The competition in the morning was pill refinement, and the competition in the afternoon was array formation. She was trying to avoid the pill refinement competition, it was simply like there was no silver in this place!

However, it did not matter. Anyway, when she came in the afternoon, they could still ridicule her.

Moreover, as the Emperor of the East Phoenix Kingdom, she actually didn't even dare to show her face. This was simply a disgrace to Her Excellency! This lass appeared to be quite smart, but in reality, her cleverness was actually mistaken by her cleverness!

As expected, when the subjects of the East Phoenix Kingdom saw that their glorious female emperor actually hid like a cowardly tortoise, they instantly felt disgraced. Even those who were doing business seemed to have no energy to shout.

Prime Minister Sima and Yun Zhichen looked at each other and smiled bitterly. Your Majesty, you can really be a demon! ! Why are you taking a nap all of a sudden? !

When the host saw that everyone from the four countries had arrived, he jumped onto the stage and said, "The second round of the competition is a pill refining competition. Each country can only choose three participants. In the end, the corresponding points will be given according to the ranking. Now, the participants from each country will be invited onto the stage."

When Prime Minister Sima saw the participants from East Phoenix, his body stiffened, and a hint of shock appeared in his eyes.

Yun Zhichen, who was sitting beside him, lowered his voice and asked, "Prime Minister, is there a problem?"

Prime Minister Sima opened the isolation array and said in a low voice, "Our country's participants are clearly three old men. They were all carefully selected by me. How did one of them suddenly become a little girl?"

Yun Zhichen looked up and saw that among the three people wearing the east phoenix country's contestant attire, there was indeed an ordinary-looking little girl. Her spiritual power level was at the third layer of the spirit illusion realm. It could be said that her aptitude was mediocre.

Yun Zhichen frowned, "Could it be that this little girl is the disciple or granddaughter of the old man from before? Perhaps something happened to the old man and that's why she temporarily replaced him?"

Prime Minister Sima thought for a moment. It was very likely that this was the case. He couldn't help but say angrily, "How outrageous! If doctor Yu has something to say, he can simply inform me. I'll send someone else!"

But now, no matter how good this little girl's appearance was, she was at most a level-13 alchemist. This time, the minimum content of the competition would be level-20 medicinal pills. Isn't this just fooling around! "I'll send someone to explain the situation. Send someone else up."

Yun Zhichen shook his head. "Prime Minister, now that the contestants have stepped onto the stage, if you say so, the people from the other three nations will definitely take the opportunity to mock us.

"Moreover, even if you send someone else up, the final result will still be in the last place. Since that's the case, just accept your mistake!"

Prime Minister Sima thought that what Yun Zhichen said made sense. Since they were going to lose anyway, it would be better to just let it be! No wonder their Emperor Fenghua did not come. It could be imagined that after the pill refining competition ended, the other three nations would be filled with ridicule and complacency. Just thinking about it made him feel stifled!

When Emperor Nan Xuan and the other two saw that the East Phoenix country had actually sent a little girl up onto the stage, the three of them curled their lips. It seemed that the East Phoenix country had broken all the rules!

Had they sent such a little girl up to find an excuse for failure? How foolish!
