

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3327

Everyone was also dumbfounded. Why were the contestants from the East Phoenix country competing with the word 'Win'this time?

How badly did the East Phoenix Country want to win!

“Didn't they win the first place in the alchemy competition yesterday? I think this Yi Dingying might have changed his name.”

“It's really possible. You're dreaming. If we can win with a lucky name, wouldn't it be settled if everyone changed their names?”

“That's right. It doesn't matter if they all win or Yi Ding wins. Talisman-making is our Southern Dragon Kingdom's strong point. The first place will definitely be ours.”

Emperor Nan Xuan and the other two also had mocking expressions on their faces. Yi Ding wins? I think you're Yi Ding loses!

Seeing that Prime Minister Sima didn't show any strange expression, Yun Zhichen thought that he was the one who arranged Yi Ding win, so he asked Prime Minister Sima in a low voice, “Prime Minister Sima, did you change the name of this contestant?”

“Prime Minister, did you change the name of this contestant? Needless to say, this name is not worse than all of them. It's just that she's a little young. What level is she a talisman Master?”

Prime Minister Sima:” ...”

What did he change? !

After the competition ended yesterday, he specially went to look for that contestant who had won all of them. In the end, Commander Pang of the Royal Forest Army said that that contestant who had won all of them had left long ago. She had only done it to help the East Phoenix Country fight for its reputation.

Moreover, he had specially gone to look at the contestants who would be competing next yesterday. They were all very normal. Who would have thought that one of them would have been switched out today? It was Yi Ding Ding who had won. This was simply F * cking ridiculous!

How would he know what level the little girl was a talisman Master! !

Yesterday, she had been able to successfully refine pills by chance. However, today, she could not rely on luck to obtain victory in talisman refinement. Wasn't this just fooling around? !

Seeing that Prime Minister Sima's expression was getting uglier and uglier, Yun zhichen immediately understood. That Yi Ding win was most likely not arranged by prime minister Sima.

It was just that it was strange. Why was there a contestant being swapped over and over again? was that Commander Pang Blind?

At this moment., the host on the stage began to announce the contents of the competition. "Today's talisman refinement competition is to draw a level 15 phantom talisman. The time limit is four hours. Finally, the number of talismans and the quality of talismans will be ranked. The competition will begin now."

As the host spoke, the contestants began to write rapidly. Of course, that Yi Dingying was not one of them.

That Yi Dingying raised his claws to indicate that there was a problem. The host hurriedly asked, "Contestant, do you have any questions?"

"Can I speak? Can I eat? I haven't had breakfast this morning!"

The Host: "..."

Even in his dreams, the host never thought that Yi Dingying would ask such a strange question. He turned his head to look at the referees. Those referees were also dumbfounded, but they still nodded.

Thus, the host said with a stiff expression, "Yes, you can do whatever you want."

Thus, under the watchful eyes of the audience, Yi Dingying drew the talisman paper and Demon Beast Blood on the operating table to the side, took out a tray of small steamed buns, a bowl of porridge, and a few dishes, and began to eat happily.

Thus, on the competition stage, the eleven contestants scribbled furiously while a little girl buried her head in her food. Such a stark contrast immediately made the subjects of the East Phoenix Kingdom feel disheartened!

This Yi Dingying was far inferior to all of them!

She was just there to make up the numbers. From the looks of it, she didn't know how to draw Phantom Talismans at all.

Just as everyone was thinking, they heard yi dingying shout, "That number one, you've been drawing for a long time. Are You Hungry? Why Don't I give you a steamed bun as a friend?"

"Number two, are you thirsty? Why Don't I give you a pot of tea as a friend?"

“Number three, I see that your hand is cramping from drawing. Do you want to sit down and rest for a while?”

..
