

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3332

Many of the East Phoenix Kingdom's subjects hugged their heads and wept bitterly. "Wuwu, I never thought that in my lifetime, I would actually see our East Phoenix Kingdom obtain first place in two events!"

"Our East Phoenix Kingdom's talisman-making technique has finally walked out of the country! It has finally walked towards the four kingdoms!"

"That's right, my great-grandfather's great-grandfather had such an impossible wish. I never thought that it would actually come true today!"

On the stage, Yi Dingying looked at the jubilant citizens of the East Feng Kingdom with a deep gaze. It seemed that even though he said that he did not mind, everyone had a competitive heart, there was nothing that could stimulate the pride of a nation's citizens more than such a victory!

Right at this moment, someone took the lead and said, "All of this is a blessing brought by our emperor! Our Emperor is the Divine Phoenix Envoy!"

"That's right, once Her Majesty Fenghua ascended the throne, our East Phoenix Kingdom obtained two first places. This is all thanks to Her Majesty Fenghua!"

"The beauty of the female emperor is unparalleled in the world!"

"The beauty of the female emperor is like a fish that has sunk into the depths of the ocean, like a bird that has fallen, like a bird that has fallen, like a bird that has fallen into the depths of the ocean, like a bird that has fallen into the depths of the ocean, like a bird that has fallen into the depths of the ocean, like a bird that has fallen into the depths of the ocean, like a bird that has fallen into the depths of the ocean."

“The beauty of the female emperor is invincible!”

Emperor Nan Xuan and the other two had ugly expressions on their faces. Firstly, it was because the East Phoenix Kingdom had obtained two victories in the competition. Secondly, when they saw the loyalty and fanaticism of the East Phoenix kingdom towards the female emperor, they felt a sour feeling in their hearts.

They didn’t have such prestige in their respective countries. That girl had ascended the throne less than a year ago. How on Earth did she do it?

They couldn’t help but feel fortunate. Fortunately, that girl didn’t come today. Otherwise, she would have been extremely smug.

They didn’t know where the East Phoenix Kingdom had found the two wretched girls, Yi Dingying and Dong Feng. They were truly caught unprepared.

Emperor bei Jing’s expression was even uglier than the other two. No matter what, the West Martial Kingdom had obtained the first place in the weapon refining competition and the South Dragon Kingdom had obtained the first place in the array formation competition. Only the north mystic kingdom had yet to reap any rewards.

Fortunately, the beast taming competition was to be held in the afternoon. This was the strength of the North Mystic Kingdom, and the first place belonged to them.

At this moment, prime minister Sima finally calmed down a little and suddenly rushed out of the VIP area. Yun zhichen shouted in shock, “Prime Minister, where are you going?”

“This old man is going to take a look at that Yi Dingying. This old man wants to thank her properly.”

Prime Minister Sima said as he ran to the bottom of the competition stage, his face full of piety as he waited for Yi Dingying to step down from the stage.

It wasn't just him. The citizens of the East Phoenix Kingdom were all crying tears of excitement as they waited for Yi Dingying to step down from the stage.

Yesterday, when all of them had won and left the stage, they had been taken away by the Royal Guards. They didn't have the time to express their excitement at all. No matter what, they couldn't let Yi Dingying leave just like that today. They had to thank her properly.

Many merchants of East Phoenix Kingdom did not even do business. They had already thought it through. When they saw Yi Dingying later, they would give their nuts (spirit fruits, tea leaves, pastries...) to her, they were grateful that she had let them realize a great dream.

When Yi Dingying saw the crazy scene below, he could not help but feel a little pain in his head. Under his sleeve, he took out a voice transmission talisman, frowned, and said a few words before putting it away.

Very quickly, Commander Pang of the Royal Forest Army led many of the royal forest army to separate the fanatical subjects of the East Phoenix Kingdom. Even prime minister Sima was mercilessly driven to the side, and then escorted Yi Ding Ying out of the venue.

Prime Minister Sima was so angry that the old man could not care less about his bearing. Pointing at Commander Pang's back, he jumped and scolded, “You Little Bastard! Just you wait, I must find His Majesty to write you a book!”
