

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3360

The group proceeded deeper into the valley. Although nothing strange happened, everyone felt a strange sense of fear and unease.

Yun chujiu looked around as she walked. The surrounding vegetation was lush and flourishing, but why was there not a single living thing?

This situation was somewhat similar to the Hell Valley below the Heavenly Dao Cliff, but there were still some differences. The Hell Valley was filled with the same type of grass, and there were many different types of plants here. Moreover, she had seen them all in the ancient records, they were not demonic plants.

However, this fellow was soon beaming with joy!

This was because she discovered that many of the herbs here were earth-grade or even heaven-grade. It was estimated that there were few people here, so the age of the herbs was not short. It was truly a pleasant surprise!

Emperor Nan Xuan and the others were so angry that they were twitching. You really want money but not your life! At this time, you still have the mood to dig for herbs? !

“Why are you staring at me? Do you think I’m Wasting My Time? No, no, these herbs are all good treasures. You Can’t buy them outside.

My alchemy skills have always been good. When I refine the pills, I’ll give you a few bottles,”Yun Chujiu said with a smile.

The corners of Emperor Nan Xuan’s and the other two’s eyes twitched. Who Didn’t know that this guy was a waste of alchemy? They didn’t dare to take the pills that she refined. If they ate them, they would probably die!

Yun chujiu picked some herbs for a while and looked at the surrounding terrain. Both sides were steep cliffs that reached into the clouds. Although she could climb up, there was still no way out after climbing up, it seemed that she could only continue to go deeper into the valley.

As time passed, the sky gradually darkened. Everyone felt even more uneasy, feeling that danger was coming soon.

At this moment, the kitten in Yun Chujiu's spiritual beast bag said uneasily, "Meow, my little heart is about to jump out. It seems like something is summoning me."

Yun chujiu said disdainfully, "Forget it! What is summoning you, Kitten? !"

The kitten said indignantly, "There is really something summoning me. If you don't believe it, then forget it! Forget it, I will continue to eat the dried fish."

Yun chujiu pursed her lips and ignored it.

The spiritual pet that Yun chujiu despised the most was this kitten. Other spiritual pets were more or less useful, but this kitten had not recovered to its original appearance. Its strength was so weak that it made people's hair stand on end! In one day, other than eating dried fish, it was also eating dried fish. It was a glutton!

Everyone continued to walk forward and suddenly heard prime minister Sima's exclamation, "Oh my God, Look!"

Everyone looked in the direction that Prime Minister Sima was pointing at and saw scattered white bones on the ground in front of them. There were human and demonic beasts. Under the moonlight, it looked especially horrifying.

Emperor Nan Xuan wiped the cold sweat off his forehead. "Your Majesty Fenghua, do you think we should continue moving forward?"

"If we don't move forward, are we going to retreat? You're not like Little Lotus who has never killed before, what's there to be afraid of?!" Yun Chujiu took the lead and walked over.

Emperor Nan Xuan and the others looked embarrassed. They were not afraid of these bones, but they were afraid of the danger behind them, alright? It was so embarrassing to be despised by a girl!

The more they walked forward, the more bones there were on the ground. Yun chujiu even used a rolling pin to dig a few times and found that other than the bones, there was no storage ring or anything else. It seemed that the things had been taken away by someone.

What on Earth had done this?
