

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3365

Yun Chujiu ignored Pi Xiu. She raised her hand and was about to release the piglets of spiritual energy. Then, she would let da Hua appear. This way, she could help Tao Wu and Qiong Qi.

Who would have thought that when she raised her hand, she did not release the group of cute piglets of spiritual energy. Instead, she released a... Da Hua that had shrunk countless times?

Yun Chujiu's heart was like a dog that was bickering. Why did it suddenly change? Could it be that because her spiritual power had leveled up, Da Hua had changed? According to common sense, shouldn't it be getting stronger and stronger? Why did this da Hua become smaller and smaller?

Just as Yun Chujiu was in a daze, she heard that Idiot Qiong Qi was laughing so hard that he almost suffocated!

"Haha! Haha! It actually became like this? Oh My God, this is so funny! hahaha! I Can't take it anymore, Tao Wu, hold on for a while, I want to go to the side and laugh for a while."

Yun Chujiu's mood was complicated to begin with. Now that the Idiot Qiong Qi was laughing so hard that he did not even care about the battle, she scolded angrily, "You Dumbass! Shut up now! Otherwise, I will never let you out!"

Qiong Qi shrunk his neck, he said humbly, "Little Fairy, you can't treat me like this just because I made a mistake once! It really became like this all of a sudden. It made me a little... Hahaha, I can't take it anymore. I Can't look at it anymore!"

Seeing that Qiong Qi had joined the battle once again, Yun Chujiu lowered her head to look at the Mini da Hua floating in the air. The sadness in her heart was simply like a river flowing against the current!

Although da Hua looked a little ugly, her combat strength was outstanding. Now that she had become like this, how could she act cool in the future!

For some unknown reason, the people of towering sky continent could not transform into spiritual beasts. Therefore, Hei Xinjiu had always treated da Hua as her trump card. Who would have thought that da Hua would become like this now!

Da Hua was still fine when she broke through the previous time! This was simply too much!

Just as Yun Chujiu was weeping in her heart, she saw da Hua raise his small head and look at her with disdain, as if he was looking at an idiot.

Yun Chujiu was immediately enraged!

“You da Hua! You actually dare to look down on me? Although you were originally ugly, your attack power was at least strong enough! But now, you actually turned into this small depraved appearance! This is simply infuriating!

Tell me, how did you become like this? I know, you are not da Hua. You Must Be da Hua’s illegitimate child!”

The purple color on da Hua’s body quickly turned black. Then, her body began to grow bigger rapidly. A pair of wings even grew on her back as she glared at Yun Chujiu.

Yun chujiu shrunk her neck and said embarrassedly, “So you can grow bigger! Looking at you, you seem to be even more powerful!

Hehe, I was just teasing you! If you want to vent your anger, beat up that Pi Xiu! It’s all its fault! Let’s Go! Dear da Hua! Brave da Hua! I have high hopes for you!”

Yun chujiu saw that da Hua had finally shifted his gaze to the Pi Xiu, and she secretly wiped away her cold sweat. Damn it, she was scared half to death by her own spiritual beast. There was really no one else!

Emperor Nan Xuan and the others were already dumbfounded!

The people of the towering sky continent were not able to transform into spiritual beasts, but they did not think it mattered. After all, their spiritual attacks were much more powerful than spiritual beasts.

However, when they saw Yun chujiu release this powerful and small... pig with wings, they were truly shocked!

This spiritual beast could actually change its size and color?

What shocked them the most was that it could release pressure. How was this possible?
