

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3375

A friendly sponsor?

Prime Minister Sima recalled the expression on Emperor Nan Xuan's face at that time. It could be described as being in excruciating pain.

Prime Minister Sima heard Yun chujiu continue, "In addition, didn't I ask fifth brother to send over a lot of chili and pepper noodles? When the time comes, we can let the people of the Jing Mu Kingdom have a good taste."

Prime minister sima imagined the sour and refreshing taste, and suddenly felt that the 50,000 troops of the Jing Mu Kingdom were not so scary anymore, because their emperor had a lot of bad ideas!

"I'll bring some people up the cliff now. You arrange for General Sun to bring a group of people to hide at the end of the valley, in case a fish escaped the net and ran over.

Tell him not to be so stubborn, dig some traps, make some trip wires, and do it the way you want. "If he lets a person from the Jingmu Kingdom escape, I will hold him accountable."

Prime Minister Sima immediately informed General Sun and then watched a few soldiers who were good at climbing climb to the top of the cliff.

Yun chujiu frowned. "This speed is really too slow! By the time they climb up, it will be too late!"

Prime minister SIMA said weakly, "Your Majesty, after all, this cliff is very steep, and it is forbidden to fly here. To be able to do this with just your skills is already very good."

Yun chujiu pouted, "This speed is not bad? Look at me!"

Just as prime minister Sima was puzzled, he saw His Majesty Feng Hua actually climb up the cliff.

Prime Minister Sima was about to Cry! If His Majesty fell down, wouldn't he die?

Just as prime minister Sima was frowning, he stared in shock at His Majesty who was like a monkey. In just a short while, he had surpassed the soldiers and climbed to the top of the cliff.

Then, several ropes were hung down, signaling for everyone to pull them up.

With the ropes, everyone climbed much faster. Then, Prime Minister Sima Saw His Majesty climb down along the ropes and climb to the top of the cliff on the other side..

Prime Minister Sima only had one thought in his mind. His Majesty was His Majesty! He was even better at climbing mountains than them. He had no choice but to admit defeat!

Very soon, the people of the four-nation alliance had set up an ambush on the mountaintops on both sides. Yun chujiu had even specially asked some of the soldiers with wood spirit roots to produce many vines to cover their bodies.

This fellow said to Prime Minister Sima, who was a little nervous beside him, "Don't worry! Jing Muguo and that Jing Jiahong are very arrogant. They won't investigate a second time, so we will definitely win this first battle beautifully!"

Although prime minister Sima felt a little more at ease, he was still uncertain. would this work?

In less than two hours, the army of the Jing Muguo had marched over in a grand manner.

Jing Jiahong looked at the valley in the distance and frowned. "General Shang, the valley ahead is the best place for an ambush. Are you sure that there are no people from the East Phoenix Kingdom on the cliffs on either side?"

Shang Liangxin made a solemn promise. "Your Highness, I sent people to investigate less than four hours ago, but there wasn't a single person.

"This cliff is extremely steep. Even if the East Phoenix Kingdom wanted to set up defenses, it would be impossible for all of them to climb up within four hours, so it must be absolutely safe.

"They must have seen you bring the army here and fled in terror."

Jing Jiahong estimated in his heart that it was indeed impossible to complete the defense in four hours. He raised his head and looked at the cliffs on both sides. There was nothing unusual with the dense vegetation.

He thought that perhaps the people of the East Phoenix Kingdom had really been scared away by the army of the Jing Mu Kingdom. They were simply unable to withstand a single blow!

He waved his hand. "Continue to advance!"
