

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3378

Prime Minister Sima nodded repeatedly as he listened. He lit a candle in his heart for the Jingmu Kingdom. 'you should just admit your bad luck when you meet His Majesty!'

The Jingmu Kingdom spent an entire day and paid the price of hundreds of casualties. Finally, they spread wet firewood in the valley and lit them up one by one.

Soon, thick smoke rose up.

The violent coughs and curses of the allied forces of the four kingdoms could be heard from both sides of the cliff. There were also the sounds of talisman seals exploding and rolling logs falling.

The army of the Jing Mu Kingdom retreated some distance, and they were under the smoke. Therefore, although they choked a little, they were much stronger than those above.

"Cough, cough, cough!"! Your Highness, don't you think my method is good? At this rate, the talisman seals of the Allied forces of the four countries will be used up very soon. At that time, when we go over, there won't be any danger,"shang liangxin said proudly while coughing.

He was extremely pleased with himself. He had relied on a dream to solve his predicament. If word of this spread out in the future, it would be a beautiful story!

Jing Jiahong also coughed a few times. However, when he thought about how the smoke on the lower level was so strong, the upper level would definitely feel even more uncomfortable. His heart instantly felt much better.

In order to let the smoke continue, Shang Liangxin had paid the price of hundreds of lives to send people to add a lot of wet wood into it.

Shang Liangxin felt a little dizzy when he was feeling pleased with himself. He thought that it might be the smoke, so he didn't take it to heart.

However, his eyelids were getting heavier and heavier, and the spiritual power in his body was slowly dissipating. He finally realized that something was wrong.

At the same time, Jing Jiahong and the others also realized something was wrong. "This smoke, this smoke is poisonous! It's the sleeping powder and the spirit-devouring powder! Quick, take the antidote!"

While the Jing Wood Kingdom army was panicking, countless allied forces of the four kingdoms rushed out of the valley, shouting and shouting as they rushed toward them.

Although the Jing Wood Kingdom army had taken the antidote, it would take some time for the antidote to take effect, so their fighting strength was greatly reduced.

For a moment, wails filled the field. Jing Jiahong gritted his teeth and said, "Retreat! Retreat!"

The army of the Jing Wood Kingdom immediately scattered like birds and beasts, rolling and crawling as they escaped!

Yun Chujiu didn't give the order to chase after them, because she knew that the effects of the medicine would pass very quickly. If she chased after them, it might not be worth it.

Moreover, her goal was to stop the army of the Jing Wood Kingdom. She just needed to delay them for a period of time.

Yun chujiu got people to use water and sand to extinguish the wet firewood. Then, she continued to climb up the cliffs on both sides to guard them. The Jing Wood Kingdom wouldn't be able to pass through this valley in a short period of time.

Jing Jiahong led his army and fled for dozens of miles. When he saw that there were no pursuers behind him, he stopped. He counted the number of people and found that thousands more had been killed or injured. There were only 40,000 people left in the 50,000-strong army.

Shang Liangxin's legs were a little weak. It was over. He was really dead this time!

Jing Jiahong gave him a fierce kick. "Is this your dream idea? It's really a F * cking dream! You didn't do anything to the four-nation alliance army, but poisoned our own people!"

Shang Liangxin immediately spat out a mouthful of blood. He kneeled a few steps and said, "Your Highness, this, this, this subordinate really didn't expect that the four-nation Alliance army would take the opportunity to poison us. They are really too sinister!"

Although Shang Liangxin spat out blood from the kick, he was relieved in his heart. It seemed that his life was saved. How could the four-nation alliance army come up with such a sinister idea? Who came up with it?
