

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3381

While Jing Jiahong was deep in thought, he heard Yun chujiu continue to shout, "Hey! What are you waiting for? Come and attack the city!"

Jing Jiahong sneered, "Yun Chujiu, do you think I can't see through your trick? ! You must have thought of some insidious way to trick me. Don't even think about it!"

"You, you're talking nonsense! What tricks Can I have? ! I just want to fight to the death with you! Come on, if you don't dare to attack the city, you'll be a turtle son of a B * Tch!"

Prime Minister Sima was about to Cry!

Your Majesty!

Do you really want to die so badly?

With your scolding, it would be a ghost if Jing Jiahong didn't attack the city!

Prime Minister Sima was thinking about it when he was kicked by Yun Chujiu. Prime Minister Sima wasn't prepared and immediately cried out in surprise.

Yun chujiu said dryly, "Ah, I was the one who called. I am the only one in Jialing City!"

Jing Jiahong laughed coldly in his heart. Did she think he was an idiot. ! He had clearly heard the voice of a man. This damned girl had indeed set up a trap. Luckily, he did not act rashly.

When Jing Jiahong thought of this, he ordered the army to station at the same spot.

On the other side, Yun Chujiu, who was on top of the city wall, provoked him a few more times. Seeing that Jing Jiahong was determined not to attack the city, she sat at the base of the city wall and whispered to the bitter-faced prime minister Sima,

“I’m sorry. If you hadn’t called out, Jing Jiahong, that idiot, might not have fallen for it.”

Prime Minister Sima secretly looked into the distance. He was surprised to find that the Jing Wood Country’s army didn’t attack the city. What the hell!

“Your Majesty, why didn’t the Jing Mu Kingdom attack the city?”

“Because I used the empty city strategy! Don’t worry, Jing Jiahong had suffered a great loss before. He won’t attack the city rashly this time.” Yun Chujiu said with a smile.

Prime Minister Sima didn’t know the story of the empty city strategy, but he had guessed most of it now. He thought to himself, only this ancestor dared to use such a strategy. This was simply gambling with his life!

Yun chujiu summoned the giant rabbit and had it keep an eye on the movements outside the city. Then, she sat on the city wall and pondered. Previously, The Nightmare Beast had weaved a dream for Emperor Nan Xuan and the others in the Pixiu Palace, and it had used up a lot of spiritual power.

Previously, she had already used up the last bit of spiritual power to weave a dream for Shang Liangxin. Otherwise, she could have asked it to weave another dream for Jing Jiahong to enhance the effect of the empty city stratagem.

Yun chujiu knew that this empty city plan could only fool the Army of the Jing Wood kingdom for two days at most. When that time came, the Jing Wood Kingdom would be unable to hold back and would definitely send the vanguard troops to probe, and they would definitely be exposed.

However, even if it was two days, it should be enough for her to carry out the next step of her plan.

On the other side, the generals of the Jing Wood Kingdom were in a heated debate.

Some who advocated attacking the city thought that Yun Chujiu was just deliberately mystifying. Even if there was an ambush, it wouldn't be able to do anything to them.

There were also some who held reservations. They felt that Yun Chujiu had many tricks up her sleeves. How could she let them attack the city for no reason? Perhaps she had already prepared a trap and was just waiting for them to enter.

In the end, there was no final conclusion to the debate. Jing Jiahong had no choice but to adjourn the meeting and decided to talk about it the next day.

The next day, there was still no conclusion to the discussion. Just as Jing Jiahong was about to send the advance troops to investigate., he received a report, "Your Highness, there is suddenly a lot of red liquid on the city wall of Jialing City. It seems... it seems to be blood."

Hearing that, Jing Jiahong walked out of the tent and looked up. He saw that the originally green and gray city wall was seeping out a lot of red liquid. It looked extremely terrifying.
