

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3387

Although the Allied forces of the four countries were constantly attacking with poison arrows or spiritual power, the Jingmu Kingdom was coming at them aggressively. Moreover, their spiritual power was higher than the allied forces of the four countries. Therefore, someone quickly climbed up to half the height of the city wall.

Seeing how fierce the army of the Jingmu Kingdom was, prime minister Sima hurriedly pulled off a few strands of his beard and said, "Your Majesty, if this goes on, Puyang City will fall before daybreak!"

"Get someone to pour the rapeseed oil on the city wall. Wait until the people of the Jingmu kingdom are also contaminated with the rapeseed oil, then fire the Rockets," Yun Chujiu said coldly.

Her eyes were cold and indifferent. Even if she was unwilling to use these sinister methods, at this moment, it was either one of them or the other.

In the face of war, human lives and kindness were worthless.

After the city wall was poured with rapeseed oil, the soldiers of the Jing Wood Kingdom had no way to continue climbing with their bare hands, and they all slid down to the ground.

Immediately after, the Allied forces of the four countries started to fire rockets, and there was another wave of miserable howls.

"Use the ladder! We must take down Puyang city today." Jing Jiahong's eyes were red. No matter what price they had to pay today, they had to take down Puyang city.

As time passed, the Allied forces of the four countries were on the verge of being defeated.

After all, the Jing Wood Kingdom had the advantage in numbers and spiritual power. Under the cover of the spiritual power attacks, some soldiers climbed up the ladder to the top of the city wall.

Although they were soon killed by the Allied forces of the four countries, if this continued, Puyang city would be in danger.

Jing Jiahong saw the soldiers of the Jing Wood Kingdom climbing up the city wall continuously, and a ferocious look appeared on his face. Yun Chujiu, your time of death has come!

After a night of intense battle, the Sun had slowly risen. Yun Chujiu felt a chill in her heart. A small city like Puyang city did not have a protective formation, so could they only retreat?

If they retreated now, the four Country Alliance Army might fall into a disadvantageous position, and the consequences would be unimaginable. However, if they did not retreat, what could they do?

At this moment, Yun Chujiu caught a glimpse of a white figure flying toward them from afar.

Yun chujiu was shocked. Puyang city had already activated its no-fly formation. Why was the person still able to fly on his sword?

Yun chujiu looked at the person again and could not help but be stunned. Her heart was beating rapidly. Was it... was it a gigolo? He had broken the ice seal? Was he here to look for her?

At this moment, the others also noticed the person and were very surprised. It was clearly forbidden to fly here. How could this person be able to fly on his sword?

Finally, the man in white landed on the city wall.

Everyone subconsciously stopped moving. Although the man didn't speak or move, just standing there made people unable to feel the slightest bit of disobedience.

Jing Jiahong looked at the man who looked like a god. Other than fear, he was also a bit jealous. He gritted his teeth and cupped his hands:

“Who are you? This is the battlefield between our Jing Mu Country and the four countries. If you are just passing by, please leave.”

Before the man in white could say anything, Yun Chujiu took a few steps forward and hugged the man in white while crying. She wanted to say something, but she could not.

The man in white froze. He raised his hand as if he wanted to push Yun chujiu away. However, he raised his hand and retracted it.

When Jing Jiahong saw this, he immediately understood that this white-robed man was that B * Tch's lover. That D * MN B * Tch!

Previously, he had said that the Divine Phoenix would not allow her to marry, but now, she was openly hugging and hugging him. She really had no sense of shame!
