

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3401

Yun chujiu was like a drowning person who had found a floating board. She held di Beiming's arm in her arms. There were tears in the corners of her eyes, but her lips curled up into a curve.

Di beiming's bent posture was really uncomfortable. He gritted his teeth and could only lie on the outside of the bed.

In her sleep, Yun chujiu seemed to feel a heat source. She let go of Di Beiming's arm and then nestled into di Beiming's arms.

Di beiming's body stiffened. He really did not like to be so close to others. However, he could not bear to push Yun chujiu away.

He lowered his head and saw that Yun Chujiu was sleeping soundly. It was as if the nightmare from before had passed. He hugged her tightly. If he moved slightly, she would move along with him. She would even moan.

Di beiming had no choice but to let her hug him. He thought that he would be so uncomfortable that he would open his eyes until daybreak. He did not expect that he would also slowly fall asleep.

The next morning, Yun Chujiu opened her eyes and found herself in di Beiming's embrace. She could not help but be stunned. Wasn't this pretty boy supposed to have no desires? Why was he hugging her?

"Aren't you cold now? Why aren't you letting go of me?" Di beiming's cold voice sounded above her head.

Yun chujiu pouted in her heart. It was clearly him who was hugging her, alright? ! However, she still had to give him a way out. Hence, she said weakly, "Thank you for last night. My body is getting weaker and weaker. Please forgive me for offending you."

Hearing Yun Chujiu's polite words, di beiming couldn't help but feel a little depressed, but he couldn't tell what the reason was.

At this moment, the sound transmission talisman in Yun Chujiu's storage ring rang. It was sent by Prime Minister Sima.

"Your Majesty, the Jingmu Kingdom's army is heading towards Puyang City. They should be preparing to attack the city again."

Yun Chujiu's heart tightened. She directly climbed over di Beiming's body, then got off the bed and put on her shoes. "Prince Charming, the Jingmu Kingdom is attacking the city again. I have to go take a look."

Before di beiming could react, this guy had already rushed out.

Di beiming recalled the touch just now and was slightly stunned. After a moment, he stood up and frowned slightly. Then, he rushed towards the city wall.

When Yun Chujiu reached the city wall, the Jing Wood Kingdom's army had already arrived at the city wall aggressively.

The crown prince, Jing Jiahong, was killed. Emperor Mu Xuan was furious. He gave Shang Liangxin and the others their lives. Either they killed Yun Chujiu and her wild man, or they destroyed their entire family.

Shang Liangxin and the others had no choice. Although they knew that di beiming was not to be trifled with, they had no choice but to force themselves to attack the city again. They lied to themselves and comforted themselves. Although that wild man was powerful, it was difficult for him to fight against four hands with two fists! They had tens of thousands of people, so why should they be afraid of him? !

The reason why the crown prince was killed by him was that the crown prince was not on guard. That Wild Man was nothing special!

When Shang Liang saw that there was only Yun chujiu on the city wall and there was no sign of that wild man, he immediately became more confident. He reckoned that the wild man had already left. The heavens were really helping their Jingmu Kingdom!

“Yun Chujiu, I advise you to surrender immediately. This way, you and your subordinates’ lives can still be saved. Otherwise, don’t blame us for not being polite!” Shang Liangxin said arrogantly.

Yun chujiu curled her lips. “Are you stupid? Don’t you know that my fiancé is very powerful? Even Your Bullsh * t crown prince was killed by my fiancé. How dare you come here to court death? You guys are really stupid!”

“Bah! B * Tch! That wild man was just lucky! You Dogs, men, and women, don’t even think about living...”

Shang Liangxin’s words came to an abrupt end, because there was an ice arrow stuck between his brows, and he had actually died!
