

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3422

Emperor Nan Xuan and the other two were so angry that they were twitching. What choice did they have? !

Did they have a choice?

This girl was both soft and hard, and she spoke in all the right ways. How could they not agree?

The three of them looked at each other and said sadly, "Then let's do as Emperor Fenghua says. We, we have no objections."

"That's great. Your Majesty, Please stay here and wait for me to ascend the throne before returning! Let me do my best as a host." Yun Chujiu said with a smile.

What else could emperor Nan Xuan and the other two say? They could only nod their heads and agree. They had no choice but to agree!

Yun chujiu knew how to give a sweet slap. After plundering the national treasury of the Jing Mu Kingdom, she took out a portion and gave it to Emperor Nan Xuan and the other two.

Emperor Nan Xuan and the other two were so touched that they burst into tears. They didn't expect this little girl to still have a conscience. They had finally seen the money they needed to turn back!

Everything proceeded in an orderly manner. Three days later, Empress Jiu officially ascended the throne.

This fellow was very lazy and didn't want to think about any new titles. He still claimed to be the peerless and peerless female emperor, or simply the female emperor.

Naturally, the name of the Jing Mu Kingdom couldn't be used anymore, so it was changed to Dongfeng Kingdom.

The change of the dynasty was actually for ordinary people. As long as it didn't involve their own interests, no one would care about it.

Therefore, Empress Jiu issued a few imperial edicts to reduce or reduce taxes, which immediately won praise from the entire country.

Most of the original ministers of the Jing Mu Kingdom were restored to their original positions. Other than the emperor who had changed, the rest were no different from before.

Empress Jiu was eating and drinking in the palace that day when she received Emperor Nan Xuan's voice transmission talisman.

"Your Majesty Fenghua, you must help me! I really don't have a way to Live!" Emperor Nan Xuan cried.

Yun chujiu was shocked. What was wrong with this Emperor Nan Xuan? !

Yun chujiu received a few more voice transmission talismans from Emperor Nan Xuan, and then she understood what had happened.

It turned out that the national advisor of the Southern Dragon Kingdom, Ji Shen, was greedy and lustful. He usually asked Emperor Nan Xuan to offer some beautiful girls to serve the Divine Dragon.

Emperor Nan Xuan also turned a blind eye to this. However, he never expected that Ji Shen's actions were getting more and more arrogant, and he actually had designs on the seventh princess, who was Emperor Nan Xuan's favorite.

If Ji Shen was as reliable as Yuan Ji, the National Advisor of the East Phoenix Kingdom, Emperor Nan Xuan would definitely happily send his daughter over. However, all the girls who were sent to Ji Shen would soon die, how could he bear to let his daughter lose her life.

Moreover, the people of the South Dragon Kingdom had long been complaining about this. Emperor Nan Xuan was also forced into a corner, so he asked Yun Chujiu for help.

Yun chujiu blinked her eyes. The monarchs of various countries did not have any channels of contact with the Lihen Palace. At least, the monarchs of second-and third-class countries did not have this right. Therefore, the state preceptor of each country could be said to be very glorious, no one dared to offend them.

Yun chujiu rested her chin on her hand and thought for a moment. Then, she took out the voice transmission talisman of the Imperial Advisor of the East Phoenix Kingdom, Yuan Ji, and prepared to ask him some questions.

The reason why Yun Chujiu chose to ask the imperial advisor of the East Phoenix Kingdom, Yuan Ji, and not the imperial advisor of the Jing Mu Kingdom, Shi Lu, was because Yun Chujiu had once gone to the Divine Hall to visit Shi Lu, but he had rejected her on the grounds that she was in closed-door cultivation.

Therefore, Yun Chujiu didn't figure out his methods and didn't plan to have any further contact with him. She only sent people to monitor the movements of the Divine Hall.

Although Yun Chujiu didn't trust and have a good impression of the state preceptor of the East Phoenix kingdom, Yuan Ji, she was still slightly better than the other state preceptor.
