

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3423

This fellow went straight to the point and directly told him about the matter of the state preceptor of the southern dragon kingdom, asking him if he had any way to report this unscrupulous state preceptor to the Li Hen Palace.

Yuan Ji replied very quickly. The gist of it was that once the state preceptor was appointed, unless the Li Hen Palace voluntarily withdrew, he would be the state preceptor of that kingdom until his death.

Moreover, the monarch of a country below second-class country did not have the right to speak directly to the Lihen Palace.

When Yun Chujiu heard the reply, she could not help but sneer. wasn't this just letting the imperial tutors of various countries do whatever they wanted? !

She asked again, "Is there no other way to change the imperial tutor?"

After a while, yuan ji replied, "Unless the divine beast that the imperial tutor is guarding shows its spirit and banishes it, there is no other way to change the imperial tutor."

Before Yun chujiu could digest the meaning behind Yuan Ji's words, she received another voice transmission talisman from Yuan Ji. "Your Majesty Fenghua, Retreat Now! Don't get yourself into trouble."

Yun Chujiu was taken aback. This Yuan Ji was rather interesting. She only replied to Yuan Ji with two words, "Thank you."

Yun chujiu put away the voice transmission talisman and wondered if she should intervene in this matter.

She was still in her fledgling years. If she offended the Li hate palace, she would definitely not have a good ending. However, if she did not care about Emperor Nan Xuan's life and death, first, it would cause a chill in Emperor Xiwen and Emperor bei Jing's hearts. Second, that Ji Shen had already aroused the anger of the people, if she did not get rid of him, there would be problems sooner or later.

She had heard that the two state preceptor of the Xiwu kingdom and the Bei Xuan Kingdom were also very unreasonable. If she allowed them to continue, they would sooner or later become a disaster.

Moreover, the person she hated the most in her life was the one who abused women. That Ji Shen deserved to die!

After this period of understanding, she felt that the reason why the Lihen Palace had sent the imperial advisors to monitor the various countries and not directly annex them was because they were afraid of them. That was why they would not easily interfere in the affairs of the various countries.

As long as she did things properly and did not let the Lihen Palace find any evidence, the Lihen Palace should not openly make things difficult for her.

Hence, Yun Chujiu took out a voice transmission talisman and replied to Emperor Nan Xuan, "I will be touring your three kingdoms in the next few days. I will start with your Southern Dragon Kingdom and prepare to receive you!"

After receiving Yun Chujiu's voice transmission talisman, Emperor Nan Xuan naturally understood Yun Chujiu's subtext. Although he did not have much hope, when he thought about how that little girl was full of bad intentions, he thought that she might really have a way to save his daughter, he immediately began to prepare eagerly.

As for Ji Shen's side, he naturally used the method of delaying. No matter what, he had to hold on until that little girl arrived.

After Yun Chujiu announced the news that she was going to patrol the three countries of the South Dragon Kingdom, everyone did not have any objections. To be exact, they did not dare to have any objections.

Female Emperor of Zephyr was ruthless and merciless. She would not go back on her words. If she did not agree with a single word, she would carry a large kitchen knife and slash people. Who the F * ck would dare to have objections!

Yun chujiu brought along many elite guards and also prime minister Sima.

To be honest, prime minister Sima really didn't want to go with this ancestor because this ancestor was too good at causing trouble. He could already foresee that he would encounter a lot of trouble on this trip.

A few days later, Empress Jiu arrived at the capital of the Southern Dragon Kingdom and was naturally warmly welcomed.

After some red tape, Emperor Nan Xuan finally had a chance to be alone with Empress Jiu. Emperor Nan Xuan said with tears streaming down his face,

“Your Majesty Fenghua, I have been too cowardly as an emperor!”! Ji Shen was getting more and more outrageous. It was one thing for him to take credit cards, but now he actually had designs on my daughter. He was really going too far! “You must help me make a decision!”
