

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3446

Although the fat old man was so angry that he wanted to vomit blood, he didn't dare to continue chasing after her. If that little girl said anything extraordinary, he wouldn't be able to explain it clearly.

The Fat Old Man did some calculations. These days, he had only eaten some food. Previously, that smelly girl had given him 250,000 high-grade spirit stones. No matter how he looked at it, he had already made a huge profit.

Thinking about it, the fat old man did not hold his anger anymore. He glared at Little Nine, then turned around and left.

Little Nine curled her lips and pondered in her heart. She did not know how the Pretty Boy had entered the city. Didn't Starry Night City want to check the identity document?

A certain person carried little nine and quickly arrived at the city gate. Not only did the people guarding the city not stop them, but they also bowed respectfully.

Yun chujiu was very curious. After walking for a distance, she asked, "Father, how did you enter the city? Why do those people seem to be afraid of You?"

A certain someone placed little nine on the ground and said coldly, "Is it fun to tease me? HMM? If you call me father again, I will throw you back to Starry Night City."

Little nine giggled. "So what if you don't Call Me Daddy? I'm just trying to get out of the city successfully. If I call you Prince Charming, those people will think I'm a little crazy! Prince Charming, you haven't answered me yet. How did you get into the city?"

A certain someone said coldly, "I just killed an official and stole his identity document."

Yun Chujiu: "..."

Alright, those who had strength were capricious!

If it were her, even if she could steal the identity document, she wouldn't dare to use it. Who knew if she would run into someone she knew!

A certain someone summoned his flying spirit tool, brought Yun chujiu up, and drove towards the border.

Little Xiaojiu said anxiously, "Idol Daddy, quickly give me the antidote!"

Male God Daddy?

A certain someone looked at little nine coldly. Little Nine had an innocent look on her face. Didn't she not allow her to call him Daddy? Then calling him male god Daddy would be fine, right? Infuriating you to death!

Their gazes converged in the air and sparks flew in all directions. Finally, little nine was defeated. She pouted and said, "Where's the antidote?"

"There is no antidote. This is the herb that you lack. However, there is still one herb that has yet to be found."

Yun chujiu looked at the herb that di beiming had given her. There was still one missing ghost face orchid. She could not help but frown. This ghost face orchid was the most difficult to find. Prime Minister Sima had not found it either. Could it be that she still had to be a child for a long time?

Di beiming saw that the little girl was squatting on the ground and had a worried look on her face. He hesitated for a moment and said, "This venerable one knows a place that might have ghost face orchids. This venerable one will bring you to pick a few of them."

The worried look on Xiaoxiao's face disappeared. Her bright smile lit up the entire cabin. She hugged a certain someone's thigh and jumped up and down. "Idol Daddy, I Knew You Were the best! I love you the most!"

"Let go." A certain someone gently flicked his sleeve, and Xiaoxiao fell on her butt.

Xiaoxiao: "..."

Damn it! She decided to feed all the emotions in her heart to the dogs!

Without even looking at Xiao Xiaojiu, who was sitting on the ground, a certain venerable walked out of the cabin.

Xiao Xiaojiu stood up, rubbed her little butt, and scolded, "Damn it, if I wasn't afraid of teasing you to your old ailment, I wouldn't have been able to tease you to death!"

The Little Black Bird inside the spirit beast bag secretly said, "Master, with your little body, you can't tease me even if you want to!"

Xiao Xiaojiu looked at her small arms and legs, looking like she wanted to cry, but no tears came out. Yes, even Xiao Long Bao was gone, so why would she flirt with me!
