

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3460

Yun chujju ignored him and took out a transfiguration pill and swallowed it.

This guy thought about it and felt that it was still not safe. He took out the antidote for the rejuvenation pill and gently bit it.

This guy thought about it and gave di beiming another transfiguration pill.

A moment later, there was only a little boy and a little girl left in the cabin. Both of them looked like they were only five or six years old. The Little Boy was stunned.

Di beiming stared at his small arms and legs. The cold air emitted from his body was even colder than the cold poison! He looked at Yun Chujiu coldly. "What do you want to Do? !"

Yun chujju said softly, "If I don't do this, how can I hide from them to check my identity?" "Later, you will say that we have encountered bad people. In order to protect us, our parents lured away those bad people. If we ask you about your identity, you will cry. Do You Hear Me?"

Although di beiming was so angry that smoke was almost coming out of his head, he knew that this was also a solution. Anyway, he had the antidote in his hands. Once he was out of danger, he would just take the antidote.

Perhaps because his body had become smaller, di beiming felt that the influence of the cold poison had weakened a lot. Although his spiritual power was still very weak, at least he would have no problem walking.

Yun chujju took her short legs and controlled the flying spirit tool to land on the ground. Then, she was led down the flying spirit tool by DI beiming.

The people from the Juntian Kingdom were stunned when they saw the two little kids. "Where are your parents?"

Di beiming said with an indifferent expression, "We met some bad people on the way. In order to protect us, our parents lured those bad people away."

Yun chujiu saw di beiming's calm expression and cursed in her heart. He couldn't even act! He was so stupid!

She pursed her lips and hugged di beiming's waist. She pinched him hard on the waist and started sobbing. "Brother, I'm scared! I want father, I want mother! Sob..."

Di beiming was pinched so hard that his mouth twitched. He finally realized that his expression was too calm. In order to cover it up, he had to lower his head and remain silent.

The people from the Jun Tian kingdom sized up the two little ones. Then, they thought of the orders from above. A cold man and a three or four-year-old little girl. These two were obviously not of the same age.

Moreover, the Little Boy's face was pale. It seemed that he was seriously ill. It was impossible for these two little kids to be wanted criminals.

The leader frowned and said, "What are your names? What are your parents' names? Do you still remember where your home is?"

Little nine gave di beiming a look. Di beiming squatted on the ground with a pale face. His forehead was full of bean-sized beads of sweat.

Little nine cried again, "Big Brother, Big Brother is sick. Big Brother is called da Bao, and I am little bao. We are both five years old, SOB SOB..."

One of the subordinates approached the leader and said, "Boss, I think these two are too young. They look like twins.

Even if you ask them, you won't be able to get anything out of them. Didn't they say that their parents lured the enemy away? Maybe they will come and look for them in a while.

Besides, the capital is not far ahead. After they enter the city, there will naturally be people who will pity them and help them.

"We have important matters to attend to, so it's better to ignore these two little kids! "Otherwise, if the higher-ups blame us, our lives will be in danger!"

The leader nodded and then said to the two little ones, "In order to catch the important criminals, the entire Jun Tian Kingdom is prohibited from flying. A few miles south is Yangli City. GO into the city and ask for Help!"

Di beiming struggled to stand up and nodded his head. Little Nine said in a childish voice, "Thank you. You are really good people."

The officers and soldiers were amused by Little Nine's words. They gave a few more instructions and then left.
