

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3461

Yun Chujiu looked at the flying spirit tool in the distance and looked at Little Ming who had an indifferent expression. "Let's enter the city first. The most dangerous place is the safest place. We will leave when your spiritual power has recovered."

Di beiming nodded. Now, even if he was unwilling, he did not have the ability to resist. They did not have any identity documents, so they could only hide as children.

Moreover, it was safer inside Jinli city than outside. At least there weren't any demonic beasts attacking.

Yun chujiu reached out her small claws and held di beiming's hand. Di beiming didn't say anything, but his small face was tight!

Yun chujiu stared at the side of Little Ming's face. Although he had taken a disguise pill, there was a type of person who was born to make people ignore his appearance. A certain someone was obviously this type.

Regardless of his figure, appearance, or even his age, it did not affect him from becoming the focus of the crowd. Even if Little Ming had become a little bun, his tightly pursed lips and cold eyes.., still gave off an aura that made people stay away from him.

He had obviously restrained this aura just now. Otherwise, the officers and soldiers would not have believed them so easily.

Yun Chujiu's heart itched when she saw this. She leaned over and kissed Little Ming's face.

Little Ming's handsome face immediately turned red. He staggered and pursed his lips even tighter. He said coldly, "Men and women shouldn't be intimate. You should be more careful."

Little nine hugged her stomach and laughed so hard that she couldn't straighten her back. If di beiming had said this before, it would have been a little intimidating. However, when this little bun said it in a soft child's voice, it was almost like he was acting coquettishly.

Little Ming obviously realized this as well. He looked coldly at little nine who was laughing so hard that she was leaning back and forth. Then, he walked quickly with his short legs. Obviously, he wasn't going to bother with little nine anymore.

Hei xinjiu looked at the desolate little figure in front of her and laughed even harder. Although the two of them were in danger now, it was really worth it to see the pretty boy become like this!

The hands under the sleeves of a certain figure clenched tightly, and his eyes were dark. Damn it!

He was too weak now. The little blue glaze had made him lose the ability to protect himself, let alone protect that little rascal. He had to take back what belonged to him as soon as possible.

Hei xinjiu hopped to the side of a certain figure, she held his little hand and said with a smile, "Little brother, don't be angry. No matter what, you have become smaller. At least the cold poison has weakened. When the cold poison is fine, we can take the antidote."

A certain person's face was still expressionless, but he did not shake off Hei Xinjiu's claws. He held her hand and walked out of Yangli City.

The city of Yangli city was even more magnificent than Starry Night City. Its size was comparable to five or six starry night cities.

There were many soldiers guarding the city gate. They strictly checked everyone's identity documents. Occasionally, they would meet a handsome man or a three or four-year-old girl, and they would be detained and interrogated strictly.

Yun Chujiu silently gave herself a 360-degree “Like” without any blind spots, and then looked at a certain person next to her proudly.

A certain person was still expressionless, as if he did not see her gloating. Hei Xinjiu silently pinched him and said in a low voice, “Act well. Is there a little bun with a cold face like you?”

Although di beiming was reluctant, he had no choice but to restrain his aura. Outsiders might feel that this little boy was too cold, but they would not be too surprised.
