

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3463

A certain venerable looked at Hei Xinjiu who was so proud that she forgot herself. He said coldly, "My fate is in your hands?"

Hei xinjiu straightened her back and said proudly, "Of course! If I don't give you the antidote, you can only do this. Why Don't You Come Over and serve me well?"

Hei Xinjiu's heart was filled with joy!

At first, she thought that turning over a serf and singing would be very far away. She didn't expect that she would have such a good opportunity by accident. If she didn't take the opportunity to torture the gigolo, she would regret it for the rest of her life!

"Little Jiu, you seem to have made a mistake. Even if my spiritual power is less than 1% now, it's still more than enough to deal with you. If you don't believe me, Let's try." A certain venerable looked at Hei Xinjiu coldly.

If she could be frightened by a few words, then she would not be Hei Xinjiu. Although this fellow's heart was beating a little, he still said arrogantly,

"Even if you are stronger than me now, you have the Frost Poison! If you use your spiritual power, the frost poison might be even more serious. You Won't take the risk, right?"

A certain man walked to the bedside and looked at Hei xinjiu indifferently. "Disrespectful people never get threatened. If you don't believe me, you can try."

Hei Xinjiu calculated in her heart. Although this gigolo's face was a little pale, he seemed to be alright. Should she stir up a hornet's nest or not?

While this guy was hesitating, a certain man was already lying on the outside of the bed. He put away the luminous pearl and said coldly, "Go to sleep."

Hei xinjiu blinked her eyes and decided to test him. Therefore, she reached out her chubby little claws and grabbed a certain man's hand by his side.

Feeling the warmth in her palm, the certain hand hesitated for a moment and did not make a sound. It also did not shake off Hei Xinjiu's little claws.

In the darkness, Hei Xinjiu curled the corners of her lips proudly. Then, she rubbed and rubbed into the certain hand's embrace.

Alright, although the two little ones were about the same size now, Hei Xinjiu somehow felt a sense of security.

A certain body stiffened for a moment and said after a long while, "Aren't you afraid that you will catch a cold because of the cold air on my body?"

Hei xinjiu said indifferently, "I'm not afraid! Have you forgotten? I have the ten-thousand-year-old fire marrow on me! I even hugged you in the fallen God Abyss last time!"

A certain body suddenly recalled some memories and the tip of his ears immediately turned red. He did not know if the seven emotions and six desires that had been sealed had loosened, but the cold poison in his body instantly showed signs of worsening.

Yun chujiu also felt the changes in di Beiming's body, and she did not dare to say anything more. Damn it, she did not say anything, so how did she get sick from flirting? She was simply wronged to death!

However, Hei Xinjiu thought of the fallen God Abyss and remembered that the Guai Cao was able to attract the cold poison in di Beiming's body. Without saying anything, he kissed a certain being.

A certain Jiu was struggling with the cold poison in his body. Who would have thought that Yun chujiu would kiss him secretly.

Almost in an instant, something jumped into Yun Chujiu's Dantian from di Beiming's body. Yun chujiu was delighted. Aiyo, looks like that thing didn't learn its lesson and was successfully seduced by Guai Cao again!

Di beiming also felt it, so he didn't Push Yun chujiu away. However, a certain jiu almost bit a certain Jiu's lips until they were swollen, but he didn't gain anything from it.

This fellow could only give up dejectedly. He stretched out his small claws and patted a certain Jiu's face. He said slyly, "Forget it, I don't think there will be any effect today. I'll Treat You Tomorrow!"
