

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3464

A certain someone grabbed Hei Xinjiu's claw. His cold voice was obviously filled with suppressed anger. "Little Jiu, don't go too far."

Hei Xinjiu looked at the originally cold face of a certain someone under the moonlight. His face was flushed red, and his lips were also messed up by her. He said dryly,

"Didn't I do it to help you get rid of the cold poison? Otherwise, do you think I would kiss you? I'm very reserved, Alright? !"

A certain someone's pupils constricted slightly. 'You're reserved??' 'you're just like a female hooligan. It doesn't have anything to do with being reserved, alright?'

Hei xinjiu yawned and mumbled, "Alright, stop being so pretentious. You're so sleepy. Go To Sleep!"

'pretentious?'

A certain someone:" ..."

Hei xinjiu fell asleep very soon. Di beiming's body was weak now, so he fell asleep in a daze.

The next day, Hei Xinjiu opened her eyes and kissed di beiming. Di beiming hesitated but did not dodge.

Hei Xinjiu struggled for a long time, but she could not draw out the thing in di Beiming's body. She could only give up and mutter, "Forget it, Miss is hungry. Let's continue after you are full!"

After Yun Chujiu finished speaking, she clearly felt a chill coming from her side. However, this guy was already immune to it. He climbed out of the bed and washed up as if nothing had happened.

A certain Jiu clenched her fists by her side. Her cold eyes looked deeply at the certain Jiu who was washing her face. After a long while, she got out of bed and washed up.

After washing up, when the certain Jiu was about to eat the fasting pill, heixinjiu stuffed a pair of chopsticks into his hands. "If you want the cold poison to heal faster, eat well."

The certain Jiu did not refuse and ate breakfast with Yun Chujiu.

Feeling the warmth in his stomach, a thought arose in his mind. It seemed that eating these dishes was indeed more comfortable than fasting pills, although it was a waste of time.

After breakfast, di beiming forced Hei Xinjiu to cultivate with him.

A certain Jiu was almost driven mad by the two little ones staying in the inn for the next two days!

"Prince Charming, let's go out for a walk! If we continue to hold it in, I will turn into a mushroom," Hei Xinjiu said as she looked at the lively street through the window.

A certain someone didn't say anything, obviously not intending to go out.

"Prince Charming, how are we going to get information if we don't go out? If the news is not so strong, we can go out of the city."

A certain someone said indifferently, "What's the point of going out of the city? ! Stay in this room obediently before the frost poison is cured. You Can't go anywhere."

Hei Xinjiu pursed her lips. Actually, she also knew that staying in the inn was safer than going anywhere. She said that gathering information was just an excuse. This fellow just wanted to go out for a stroll.

Another two days passed, and everything was peaceful. Under the suppression of di beiming, Hei Xinjiu also gave up the idea of going out for a stroll.

On this day, the two little ones were cultivating in the room when the sound of footsteps came from outside the door.

Yun chujiu and di beiming looked at each other. Both of them were shocked. Who Was It? Could it be that it was coming for them?

The sound of footsteps stopped at their door. Yun Chujiu's heart tightened. Was it really coming for them?

At this moment, the door was pushed open. The inn owner said with a smile, "Two little guests, leader Zhang is here to see you."

Yun chujiu saw the people beside the innkeeper and her heart thumped. It was actually the person who had intercepted her and the pretty boy's flying spirit tool. What was he doing here? Could it be that he was suspecting them?
