

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3466

Yun Chujiu moved to leader Zhang's side and sweetly asked, "Uncle, where are you taking us?"

Leader Zhang's face was slightly smug as he said, "The Hateful Palace wants to recruit Inner Palace disciples. Inner Palace disciples are different from ordinary hateful palace disciples. Inner Palace disciples are nurtured by the hateful palace from a young age, and their status is higher than other disciples.

"Inner Palace disciples are only recruited once every five years. This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. Originally, you didn't have parents, so you were unable to provide proof of identity. Logically speaking, you don't have the qualifications to participate in the selection. However, with this commander vouching for you, you don't have to worry about this problem."

After saying this, leader Zhang looked at little nine with a face full of anticipation. His meaning was obvious. Quickly thank me! Quickly praise me!

Yun Chujiu's heart was like a beeping dog!

Who the F * ck wanted to participate in some inner palace disciple selection! !

However, when she saw the excited faces of the children around her and the ecstatic expressions of their parents, she could only swallow her words of reluctance.

In the hearts of everyone, the Li Hen Palace was supreme. It was a place like a fairyland. If she rejected it, it would definitely arouse the suspicion of others.

Moreover, she was only going to register. When the time came, she would just have to think of a way to make her and the gigolo lose.

Thinking of this, Hei Xinjiu's face was filled with gratitude. "Uncle, thank you so much! You're really a good person!"

When leader Zhang heard Little Nine's praise, he was very gratified. This was a piece of cake for him, but it could change the lives of these two children. He felt that he was great.

Of course, leader Zhang also felt that although these two children were young, their aptitude seemed to be quite good. Moreover, they were intelligent and quick-witted. If they were chosen by the Li Hate Palace, they might be able to borrow some strength in the future.

Heavens, if he could connect with the Li Hate Palace's inner sect, then his future would be limitless..

Leader Zhang then brought people to other inns in the city to gather children of the right age. Finally, he brought them all to the Divine Hall of the Jun Tiantian Kingdom.

By the time Yun Chujiu and the others arrived, many children had already gathered in the square of the Divine Hall. They were presumably children of noble families and ordinary people.

The children were chattering excitedly. Clearly, they all felt that this was a good opportunity to soar to the sky.

At this moment, Emperor Xuan Huan and the Imperial preceptor of the Jun Tiantian kingdom walked over. The square instantly fell silent.

Emperor Xuan Huan first said some polite words, nothing more than expressing his loyalty to the Li Hate Palace. Now, he could be said to be trembling with fear.

The people of the Lihen Palace had met with trouble in his territory, and they had searched for so many days without finding anything. He was afraid that the Lihen Palace would vent their anger on him, so he was even more cautious.

After Emperor Xuan Huan finished speaking., the imperial tutor of the Jun Heaven Kingdom said, “The criteria for the Lihen Palace to select people are very strict. It is naturally impossible for all of you to have the qualifications to go to the Lihen Palace to participate in the selection. Now, I will carry out the preliminary selection first. Those who are eliminated can go back.”

Yun chujju blinked her eyes. Preliminary selection?

Since there was a preliminary selection, it would be easy to handle. She would see how the children who were eliminated looked like. She would just learn from them. In any case, she could not participate in the selection no matter what.

Yun Chujju was afraid that a certain someone would not cooperate, so she forcefully shook his hand. A certain someone’s clear and cold eyes glanced at her and nodded indiscernibly.

When Yun Chujju saw that a certain someone was so cooperative, her eyes immediately curved into a crescent moon.

When a certain someone saw Yun Chujju’s appearance, although his expression did not change, his tightly pursed lips curled up slightly.
