

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3467

Yun Chujiu's calculations were quite good, but she had not expected that the method of the Imperial Preceptor's primary selection would actually be... judging a person by their appearance.

Although Yun chujiu and di beiming had already taken the Transfiguration Pill, their looks were still very outstanding among these children, so they had passed the primary selection just like that.

Hei Xinjiu's heart was like a dog that was bawling!

This was also possible?

Could it be that the first requirement to become a disciple of the Li hate palace was to be good-looking?

Appearance alone eliminated nearly half of the children, and then the imperial preceptor eliminated the children with low spiritual power. As a result, there were less than fifty children left in the square.

The Imperial preceptor looked at the remaining children and pondered for a moment before saying, "Introduce yourselves one by one, and tell me the reason why you want to enter the Li Hate Palace. Only twenty of you will be able to enter the next round of the selection."

Hearing the Imperial Tutor's question, Yun Chujiu was immediately assured. This was easy. In a while, her answer would guarantee that she would not be selected.

The children answered one by one. As for why they wanted to enter the Lihen Palace, it was simply because they wanted to be loyal to the Lihen Palace Master and wanted to become stronger.

Hei Xinjiu and di beiming were ranked last. Therefore, it was Hei Xinjiu's turn after quite a while.

Hei xinjiu sniffled and cried, "Wuwu, my name is Xiao Bao, and my brother is da Bao. Our father and mother were killed by someone. Wuwu..."

Leader Zhang, who was standing aside, gritted his teeth in anxiety. This little girl was usually very smart. Why was she crying now? It was over. He was definitely not going to be chosen!

The state preceptor's expression did not change much. He looked at di beiming, who was standing beside Yun chujiu, and said, "It's your turn. Go ahead."

Di beiming lowered his head. Even if he was beaten to death, he did not want to say his stupid name like Dabao! Therefore, he said five words stiffly, "I'll listen to my sister."

When leader Zhang heard that, he was instantly discouraged! These two little dolls were definitely going to be eliminated. It seemed that they did not have a rich and noble life!

When the state preceptor saw that all the children had finished answering, he began to distribute the jade tokens in his hands. The children who received the jade tokens would mean that they had passed the selection. Therefore, he looked at the state preceptor with eager eyes.

Hei Xinjiu knew that she and di beiming could not be selected at all, so she did not even bother to look at the National Master. She thought to herself that since she had already left the inn today, she could go to the restaurant and have a big meal. If the pretty boy did not agree., she would cry for him to see.

Just when she was feeling happy, she heard the National Master's voice from above her head, "Take this. This is your jade token."

Yun Chujiu looked up in confusion, only to see that the imperial tutor still had two jade tokens left in his hands, which were obviously hers and di Beiming's.

This Guy's heart was as mad as a dog!

F * ck!

She was crying like an idiot just now, and she was actually chosen? Was this imperial tutor blind?

Seeing her in a daze, the imperial tutor thought that this little girl was happy silly, so he stuffed the jade token to her, and then handed the remaining jade token to di beiming.

A certain figure was also in a daze, but he was obviously calmer than Hei Xinjiu. He took the jade token indifferently.

The imperial preceptor asked the servants to take the children who had been eliminated out, a few children gathered their courage and questioned, "Imperial preceptor, that little treasure was crying. That da Bao only managed to squeeze out five words. They didn't even give a reason to join the Li Hen Palace. Why were they chosen?"

Hei Xinjiu secretly agreed when she heard this. What a good question! ! That's right. Why were they chosen? They didn't want to be chosen at all, Alright? !
