

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3468

The National Master Glanced at the children who had been eliminated and said in a calm tone, "Because what they said was the truth, the truest thought in their hearts.

"Their parents were killed by a rapist, so they have enough motivation to cultivate properly. Moreover, the brotherly and sisterly love is quite rare."

Yun Chujiu:"..."there was something that she did not know whether to say or not. which F * CKING Eye of yours could tell that they were speaking the truth? !

When those children heard the Imperial Preceptor's words, they were instantly rendered speechless and brought out dejectedly.

Leader Zhang, on the other hand, was very happy. He did not expect that the two children had actually passed the selection by accident. Although there were still many rounds of selection to come, these two children had survived a great disaster and would definitely have good fortune in the future, perhaps they would really be chosen!

Just as leader Zhang was thinking about it, the imperial preceptor said to him, "Leader Zhang, escort these children to the Li Hate Palace. Don't let anything happen to them."

Leader Zhang respectfully acknowledged and then brought the twenty children out of the Divine Hall.

Yun chujiu was calculating in her heart. It was said that the Jun Tiantian kingdom was hundreds of thousands of miles away from the Li Hate Palace. She could just find an excuse to escape on the way and use this opportunity to escape.

When this fellow thought of this, his mood immediately became much better. He even walked briskly.

Di beiming keenly sensed the change in Hei Xinjiu's mood and frowned slightly. However, he quickly guessed Yun Chujiu's thoughts.

He also felt that this was a good opportunity to escape, so his slightly furrowed brows also relaxed.

However, when he and Hei Xinjiu saw the thousands of soldiers outside the city gates, their hearts instantly turned cold. They had only escorted twenty children, yet they had already sent so many soldiers?

How could they have known that Emperor Xuan Huan was treading on thin ice? Afraid of any mishaps, they had sent heavy soldiers to escort him.

Hei Xinjiu's head immediately drooped. It was over! It was impossible for them to escape now. With so many pairs of eyes staring at them, even if she and the pretty boy grew wings, they would not be able to escape.

Everyone boarded their flying spirit tools and sped in the direction of Li Hen Palace.

The children were initially a little reserved, but they quickly became familiar with each other. They were even faintly divided into three factions. One of them was a noble child, led by the ninth Prince Xuan Yuanzhuo, while the other faction was a commoner child, a little boy named Deng Qianyuan was the leader. As for Hei Xinjiu and di beiming, they were pushed aside and became the third faction.

Both sides had tried to get the two of them to join, but Hei Xinjiu had arrogantly rejected them. As a result, the two of them became the third faction with honor.

Because of leader Zhang's care for the two of them, although those children isolated Hei Xinjiu and a certain respected figure, they did not dare to openly bully the two of them.

Yun chujia was not a child. She scoffed at such childish behavior. If she had the time, she would rather tease her gigolo!

After walking for about half a day, the flying spirit tool landed on the ground.

Hei Xinjiu could not help but wonder, why did it land so suddenly? What happened?

After a while, more children boarded the flying spirit tool.

Yun chujia listened to a few words and immediately understood. These children were selected from the other cities of the Jun Tiantian Kingdom. That's right, it was impossible to only choose from the capital city. The children from other cities naturally had to participate in the election.

However, the number of children chosen from other cities was obviously less than the number chosen from the capital city. This was understandable. The people with high spiritual power in the Jun Tiantian Kingdom were basically all gathered in the capital city.

There were constantly new children joining. When they left the Jun Tiantian Kingdom, the number of children had already risen from 20 to 100.

The children quickly joined Xuan Yuanzhuo and Deng Qianyuan's camp. Only Hei Xinjiu and Di Beiming were still leisurely wandering outside.
