

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3470

Hei Xinjiu pondered in her heart. She had to work harder and cause more trouble. Naturally, the points would be deducted quickly. This way, she and the gigolo could be sent back to the Juntian Kingdom.

The middle-aged man continued, "I'm the Chief Instructor of the Juntian Academy. You can call me instructor Lu Jiaoxi. "There will be other instructors to teach you the lessons you need to learn. "Now, the men and women will stand separately. I want to assign you a dormitory."

The children stood in two rows obediently. Only Hei Xinjiu stood foolishly in the boy's Row. Her fingers were still clutching di beiming's clothes, as if she would not let go of him.

Instructor Lu Jiaoxi frowned. "No. 19, What's wrong with you? Didn't you hear what this instructor said? Quickly stand on the girl's side."

Hei xinjiu sobbed. "I don't, I don't, I just want to be with my brother. We siblings will never be separated."

Instructor Lu Jiaoxi's frown deepened. The children who were selected had gone through preliminary selection. How could such a noisy little girl be chosen?

Hei Xinjiu saw instructor Lu Jiaoxi's gloomy expression and shouted in her heart, "Deduct points!"! Deduct points! It was best to deduct 100 points all at once!

Instructor lu said coldly, "Deduct one more point on the 19th. Now go to the girls'team immediately, or continue to deduct points."

Hei Xinjiu acted as if she did not hear him and hugged di beiming's waist tightly. "I don't care. I Won't separate from my brother anyway."

Di beiming was secretly pinched by Hei Xinjiu, so he could only agree stiffly, "We siblings will not separate."

The rest of the children gloated at the two of them. These two were really courting death. Even if they were not eliminated this time, they would still lose a lot of points.

After a moment, instructor Lu Jiaoxi said coldly, "10 points will be deducted for each of the 19th and 20th."

After instructor Lu Jiaoxi finished speaking, he did not force Yun Chujiu to go to the girl's side. Instead, he began to allocate the dormitories.

He calculated in his heart that the little girl would soon realize how inconvenient it was to be with a boy. Moreover, she was now a "Deviant", so the siblings would definitely be ostracized. When that time came, she would naturally give in.

Ten people shared a dormitory. In Yun Chujiu's dormitory, other than the siblings, the remaining eight people were all boys. Coincidentally, all eight of them were Xuan Yuanzhuo's group.

The eight of them exchanged glances. They had long disliked these two little ones. Previously, with leader Zhang's protection, they were unable to teach them a lesson. Now that there was finally an opportunity, they would be taught a lesson.

Instructor Lu Jiaoxi said some things to take note of, and then let the children return to their respective rooms.

Yun chujiu dragged di beiming and stayed in the courtyard for a while before entering the dormitory at a leisurely pace.

The eight people in the dormitory each occupied a bed, and the two beds at the entrance were piled with sundries. It was obvious that they wanted to make things difficult for Hei Xinjiu and di beiming.

One of the fatties said arrogantly, "Hey, you two will be responsible for serving us from now on. The water for washing our faces and feet is all your business. As for the place to sleep, just sleep on the floor! In this way, you and your sister will not be separated, Hahaha!"

The other seven boys also laughed strangely. They were generally two years older than Hei xinjiu, so they did not put the two little ones in their eyes at all.

Di Beiming's little face was expressionless, and it was hard to tell whether he was happy or angry. Hei xinjiu, on the other hand, began to giggle.

She did not want to bully the little ones with the big ones, but since these brats were looking for death, she could not be blamed! Just use them to deduct points and get eliminated early.
