

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3472

After dinner, the children went to bed to rest.

If it weren't for Yun Chujiu, this little devil with a black heart, they would definitely play around and rest. Now, they were afraid that Yun Chujiu would find fault with them, so they were all very well-behaved.

Yun chujiu blinked her eyes and did not return to her own bed. Instead, she climbed onto di Beiming's bed with both hands and feet.

Di beiming was too lazy to say anything because it would be useless to say anything. He allowed Hei Xinjiu to reach out her evil claws and hug him.

Hei xinjiu ravished a certain someone for a while. This guy leaned into the ear of a certain someone and whispered, "Prince Charming, do you like this kind of childhood sweetheart tone?"

Di beiming's cold little face suddenly turned red. He scolded coldly, "Go to sleep. If you talk again, go back to your own bed."

Yun chujiu curled her lips and pinched a certain someone's arm. Only then did she yawn and fall asleep soundly.

A certain someone covered the blanket that Yun Chujiu had kicked away. In the darkness, he pondered for a long time before closing his eyes..

The next day, before dawn, all the children in the room had already woken up. Especially the little fatty with a swollen face and the boy who had been whipped by Yun Chujiu, they had finished washing up early. They wished that they could see instructor Lu Jiaoxi right away..., they would expose Yun Chujiu's evil deeds and then chase her out.

Yun Chujiu was awakened by the noise of the children. This fellow's anger from waking up immediately erupted. He said fiercely, "All of you shut the F * ck up. If anyone disturbs my sleep, I'll kill him!"

Those children were stunned at first, and then they were furious beyond belief. This little girl was really too overbearing. However, her good days were about to come to an end. They only needed to endure for a little longer, and perseverance was victory..

Finally, the sound of Assembly came from outside. The children rushed out impatiently. Only Hei Xinjiu was still lying lazily on the bed. If she was late, she would be deducted points, right? If that was the case, then she would be late!

This guy blinked his eyes, hugged di beiming's neck and said slyly, "We haven't treated you for a long time. Come, little sister will treat you. Be Good!"

While di beiming was in a Daze, Yun Chujiu's lips had already kissed him. He might as well just leave it at that. What if it was effective against the cold poison, right?

At this moment, outside the house, the children had already lined up.

Instructor Lu Jiaoxi glanced at the group and noticed that one group was missing two people. He could not help but frown, "Group four, why are there two people missing?"

When the little fatty heard instructor Lu Jiaoxi's question, he immediately found his backbone, with a sobbing voice, he said, "Instructor Lu Jiaoxi, the ones who are missing are da Bao and Xiao Bao. That Xiao Bao beat me up for no reason last night and now he is late for bed. You have to make a decision for me!"

The boy who was whipped by Yun Chujiu also stood up and echoed, "Instructor Lu Jiaoxi, that Xiao Bao even beat me with a whip. My back is still burning!"

Instructor Lu Jiaoxi had actually seen the little fatty's strange behavior just now, but he definitely did not expect that he was actually beaten by that little treasure. That Little Treasure was two to three years younger than the little fatty. How did she do it? She probably joined hands with that big treasure?

Instructor Lu Jiaoxi was really a little surprised. He originally thought that big treasure and little treasure would be ostracized and bullied by the other children, but he did not expect that she would instead bully others?

Instructor Lu Jiaoxi looked at a guard standing at the side of the team and said, "Bring the two of them out."
