

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 3474

Yun chujiu had thrown out quite a powerful fruit nucleus. The Little Fatty's already swollen face was hit by it, and he immediately cried out in pain.

The rest of the children were clearly shocked by Yun Chujiu's valiant behavior. They had thought that the little girl would definitely be trembling in fear. After all, she had no advantage in any aspect.

Who would have thought that she was even more arrogant than before? What right did she have?

The children came back to their senses and started to encourage the little fatty. "Liu Dali, what are you still standing there for? ! Come on! Are you afraid of this little girl?"

The little fatty instantly pounced on Hei Xinjiu in a fluster. He was gnashing his teeth in hatred. He was a little tyrant in his family, but now, he had been bullied by a little girl several times., if she wasn't beaten to half-life today, her name wouldn't be Liu Dali!

Yun chujiu wouldn't put a little brat in her eyes. The little fatty's actions were like slow motion in her eyes, and she could easily see the flaws in it. She only dodged slightly and avoided the little fatty's attack, stretching out her short legs, the little fatty sadly lay on the ground.

The Little Fatty's mind went blank for a moment. who was he? Where was he? What was he doing?

He was actually beaten down by a little guy in one move? ! He was also a person who cared about his face. How could he survive in the future? !

Yun Chujiu kicked the little fatty. "Hey, aren't you going to fight? Get Up!"

The little fatty got up with a red face and rushed towards Hei Xinjiu again. However, the outcome was still the same. He didn't even see how the little girl moved before he fell to the ground again.

“Are you satisfied? Come again if you’re not satisfied. It just so happens that the baby had a little too much to eat for dinner,” Hei Xinjiu said with a smile.

The little fatty did not give up. He got up again and again and rushed towards Hei Xinjiu..

Unfortunately, some things could not be achieved through hard work. After the little fatty was thrown eight times, he fell to the ground and died.

Yun Chujiu kicked him with the tip of her foot. “Hey, get up. Let’s continue fighting!”

The little fatty did not say a word. F * ck, he only wanted to die first. He was too ashamed to face anyone!

Yun chujiu saw that the little fatty was pretending to be dead, so she did not continue to beat him. Instead, she looked at the other children. Those children were all silent in fear. They were not stupid. If the little fatty fell once or twice, it would be a coincidence.., f * ck, he fell eight times. What did this mean?

It meant that this little girl was more powerful than them. Not to mention a one-on-one fight, even if they fought together, they might not be able to win. Moreover, the little girl’s brother had not made a move, no matter how one looked at it, that little thing was more powerful than this little girl.

Hei xinjiu glanced at them and then said with a smile, “I don’t eat people. Why Are You So Afraid? Tell me, which one of you still wants to fight the baby one-on-one?”

Those children shook their heads like rattle-drums. What a joke. They did not want to be as miserable as Liu Dali. If they fought with her, they would only be tortured.

Seeing this, Yun Chujiu took out her whip and swung it on the ground a few times. Then, she said with a smile, "It seems that you are convinced now?"

Those children nodded repeatedly. Even if they were not convinced, they did not dare to say it!

Yun Chujiu touched her chin and revealed a bright smile on her small face. "Since you are convinced, you can call me your king from now on. Do You Hear Me?"
