

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 378

The Fire Dragon's intestines were turning green with regret. If it had known that there was a dragon in this wretched girl's spiritual sense, it would not have chosen her no matter what! It had thought that this little girl was the weakest, so it had chosen her as a host. It did not think that she was a weirdo!

After Little Silver Dragon slapped its claws at the Fire Dragon a few dozen times, it aimed at its primordial spirit's throat and took a bite. The Fire Dragon struggled with all its might. Upon seeing this, Furry and Yun Chujiu's primordial spirit quickly went over to help.

"Master, bite it! Eat this little b*tch and your damaged primordial spirit will recover!" Little Silver Dragon shouted loudly!

Although the little purple ball had yet to take human form, it could still devour primordial spirits. Upon hearing Little Silver Dragon's words, it began to devour the Fire Dragon's primordial spirit.

It struggled desperately, but Little Silver Dragon's claws held it down tightly. Furry was not willing to be outdone so it kept kicking and scratching. 'Who told you to bite me! I'll kick you to death!'

Yun Chujiu's primordial spirit devoured half of the Fire Dragon's primordial spirit, and the other half was divided between Little Silver Dragon and Furry.

The people outside noticed that Yun Chujiu's face was slowly turning rosy, and her expression changed from that of pain to a strange satisfaction. Then, she burped and woke up.

The silver dragon also flew out from between Yun Chujiu's brows and entered the rolling pin again.

"Little Jiu, are you okay?" the people asked worriedly.

“Uh... Uh... I’m fine. That Fire Dragon’s primordial spirit was eaten by me and Little Flame,” Yun Chujiu burped and said.

“Little Flame? Is that the weapon spirit of that rolling pin?”

“Yes! If it wasn’t for this situation, I wouldn’t have known that the rolling pin had a weapon spirit! The thing my master left me is indeed extraordinary!” Yun Chujiu said with a smile!

An Feng, who was beside her, heaved a sigh of relief. At the same time, he could not help but curse in his heart. ‘Miss Jiu, your ability to lie is truly unparalleled in the world! You didn’t know?’ He had seen that little silver dragon countless times!

However, Elder Qu and the others believed it to be true. They thought that it was because the rolling pin was eager to protect its master that the weapon spirit appeared. They all sighed.

The first thing Yun Chujiu did when she got up was to put away the huge corpse of the Fire Dragon. ‘A Tier Twelve demonic beast... My goodness, this would definitely sell for a lot of Spirit Stones!’

The corners of everyone’s eyes twitched violently, but they did not say anything. After all, if Yun Chujiu had not saved them, they would have all died there.

“Little Jiu, what’s inside this sack? Is it really chili? Why does it feel so heavy?” Elder Qu kicked a few sacks on the ground and asked curiously.

“Hehe, this is good stuff! It’s the best to fool people!” Yun Chujiu smiled and opened a sack for everyone to see.

When everyone saw it, they were all in a mess! It was actually sand inside!

“I did this when I was in the mystic realm’s desert. Not only can I fool people with it, I can also make people curious during critical moments. It’s a must-have for travel. Most importantly, it’s free! It’s absolutely free!” Yun Chujiu tied up the sack properly and put it into her storage ring.

Everyone felt that their worldview was refreshed once again. Before they could recover, they saw Yun Chujiu jumping into the Fire Dragon’s huge nest.

“Tsk tsk! This Fire Dragon really doesn’t care about hygiene. It’s so messy in here!”

The nest was filled with the bones and fur of demon beasts. Yun Chujiu collected some high-level demon beasts and kept them. Their bones could be used as medicine, and the fur could also be used to make a few sets of fur mats. Furry can practice with them.

The faces of Elder Qu and the others who followed her were stiff. This Yun Chujiu really seized all opportunities. She did not let anything go.

Yun Chujiu saw that there was nothing left to take in the nest, so she said with a smile, “Elder Qu, why are you all standing there? It’s a waste not to take them. These bones are also good medicinal ingredients!”

Everyone looked at the bones that Yun Chujiu picked up on the ground, and the corners of their eyes twitched. ‘Don’t you feel guilty saying that? The good ones have all been picked by you, and the remaining ones are all low-level beasts. What’s the point of them picking them up?!
