

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 381

Yun Chujiu threw about twenty steamed buns and clapped her hands. "Sigh, it's getting late. I'm sleepy too. I'll continue to worship you tomorrow!"

After saying that, Yun Chujiu retreated to where everyone was. Then, she took out a recliner from her storage ring and lay down on it, getting ready to sleep.

Elder Qu and the others were very anxious but they scratched their heads in confusion. They surrounded her. Yun Chujiu mouthed to them, 'Don't be impatient. Just wait and see!'

Although everyone did not understand what Yun Chujiu meant, they could only return to their spots and continue resting.

Yun Chujiu was about to settle into her downtime when the voice transmission talisman in her storage bag started to vibrate. Yun Chujiu took it out and used her divine sense to probe it. Di Beiming's deep voice sounded, "You went to catch a Fire Spirit Beast? Be careful, don't overexert yourself! If you want it, I'll help you catch one when I have time!"

Yun Chujiu's heart was beating fast. Her long-lived thick skin blushed slightly red. The gigolo's flirting skills were getting more and more powerful!

"Prince Charming, I got it. Don't worry! By the way, you must guard your body like its jade. Don't let anyone take advantage of you. If anything, I should be the one taking advantage of you!" Yun Chujiu said with a smile.

The voice transmission talisman started to vibrate. Di Beiming's gnashing voice came from inside, "Nonsense! You must pay attention to your safety!"

Yun Chujiu pouted. She thought he had improved, but he was still so arrogant!

On the other side, Di Beiming saw the voice transmission talisman vibrate. He quickly sent his spiritual sense in and heard Yun Chujiu's smug voice, "The other party doesn't want to talk to you and threw a ball of earth fire at You!"

Di Beiming frowned. 'What did she mean? What did she mean by throwing a ball of earth fire at me?'

On the other side, Yun Chujiu hugged her stomach and rolled around happily. 'Hmph! Earth fire is the Fire Spirit Beast's sh*t. I won't use curse words even though I'm scolding you for being arrogant!'

On the other side, Di Beiming frowned and thought for a long time, but he still did not understand what she meant. He decided he would ask the black thing again when they met. There were only five voice transmission talismans in total, so it was better not to waste them!

Elder Xiao and the others saw Yun Chujiu laughing foolishly on the recliner as if she was having a seizure. They were all dumbfounded. This girl was really too impulsive. They did not know what her plan was, and whether she could lure the Fire Spirit Beast out.

Yun Chujiu slept for a while. The next morning, she continued grumbling in front of the Sea of Fire, but this time, she threw a meat bun in instead. Suddenly, a few figures flashed through the Sea of Fire. They jumped up to catch the meat buns and disappeared!

After Yun Chujiu threw dozens of meat buns, she took out the stack of books she bought and began to read them with great interest as if nothing had happened!

An Feng's eyes twitched when he saw the title of the book. The books was not "Me and My Three Thousand Beautiful Male Cultivation Furnaces", but "My Eighty-One Male Pets", "My Beautiful Male Harem", and so on. An Feng thought to himself, 'If His Excellency found out about this, he would be furious. This Miss Jiu is really outrageous!'

When Elder Qu and the others saw Yun Chujiu's book, their faces turned red. Elder Xiao said with a dark face, "Yun Chujiu, how can you read these books at such a young age? Hurry up and put them away!"

Yun Chujiu did not feel embarrassed. She said with conviction, "I'm just taking precautions. I don't know much about things between men and women. What if I'm deceived in the future?! You guys, it's because you lack this kind of knowledge that you've become single old men!"
