

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 397

"Brothers, after this round of inspection, let's go back and rest! This earth fire cave can f*cking roast a person to death! Other than the elders who regularly come to retrieve the earth fire, who can withstand the high temperature inside?!"

"That's right! The sect wants us to patrol once every half an hour. It's simply a waste of manpower! Who can steal the earth fire?"

"I heard that we developed bad blood with Spirit Radiance Sect recently. Our sect leader has already cut off their earth fire supply! Who knows? Maybe Spirit Radiance Sect's people will come and steal the Fire Spirit Beast!"

"Haha! Senior Brother Liu, don't joke around! Forget about whether they can sneak into the earth fire Cave under our noses. Even if they can, the cave is filled with earth fire, so they can't go too far in. Moreover, our sect hasn't seen the true appearance of that Fire Spirit Beast for so many years. It's useless for them to come!"

"That makes sense! Tsk tsk, Spirit Radiance Sect is really stubborn! They didn't agree to our conditions!"

"Hmph! They can't hold on much longer! I heard that they recently bought some earth fire from the Bixiao Palace and the Immortal Sword Sect. Our sect master was extremely dissatisfied, so he went to Spirit Radiance Sect today."

"I heard that the sect masters of the two other sects will also be there. When the time comes, our sect master will definitely pressure the other two sects and not let them sell the earth fire to Spirit Radiance Sect. At that time, we won't be afraid that Spirit Radiance Sect won't comply!"

The patrolling people casually chatted while pretending to patrol the area. Then, they returned to the shelter that they built to drink and play cards.

Yun Chujiu and An Feng exchanged a look, and the two of them quickly entered the underground fire cave.

After walking for a while, a sea of fire appeared in front of them. However, this sea of fire was much smaller than the one in the fire cave. With that being said, this underground fire cave was relatively narrow. Although it was small, the distance was long, so it was still difficult for people to pass through.

An Feng took out the isolation array plate and activated the isolation array. After that, Yun Chujiu released an adult Fire Spirit Beast. “Number Three, go and catch that prodigal old man who ran away from home!”

The Fire Spirit Beast squeaked and jumped into the sea of fire with a whoosh.

‘Number Three?’

‘Miss Jiu’s naming skills isn’t as good as before!’

‘However, what did the prodigal old man mean?’

Before An Feng could ask, Yun Chujiu took the initiative to explain, “The Fire Spirit Beast of Heavenly Gates Sect wanted to run away from home after a quarrel with Number Three. However, it was caught by the sect. Oh right, Number Three is female, while the one of from the sect is male. He’s as arrogant as a gigolo! HMPH!”

An Feng shrunk his neck and did not dare to make a sound. He cursed in his heart, ‘Miss Jiu, while you’re scolding our Lord, you seem to be talking about yourself too!’

He did not know how the two beasts communicated with each other. After fifteen minutes, Number Three came out of the Sea of Fire with a Fire Spirit Beast! It was slightly bigger than Number Three, and its fur was even more colorful. However, at that moment, it was drooping its head. Number Three kept slapping its head with its claws!

Yun Chujiu coughed dryly, "Number Three... You should really be gentler. If you're so violent, you might slap it away and make it run away from home again!"

Number Three seemed to be a little embarrassed after hearing Yun Chujiu's words, and she finally stopped attacking the beast with her claws.

"Number Four, your wife and clansmen have signed an equal contract with me now. Are you going to sign it or not?" Yun Chujiu asked with a smile.

An Feng pursed his lips. 'You've already given it a name, yet you're still pretending to ask it if it's going to sign it. Aren't you being too hypocritical?!'

Number Four was just hesitating when Number Three's claw arrived!

'Damn it! What are you still hesitating for?! You son of a b*tch who abandoned his wife! If you don't recognize her as your master, I'll slap you to death!'

Of course, Yun Chujiu understood what happened on her own. After all, Number Three was only making a move and did not say anything!
